

2024 MADISON COLLEGE

ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT

Includes crime statistics for calendar years 2021, 2022, and 2023.

This report includes compliance information for the following campuses: Commercial Avenue Campus, Fort Atkinson Campus, Portage Campus, Public Safety Training Facility, Reedsburg Campus, Goodman South Campus, Truax Campus, and Watertown Campus. All policy statements contained in this report apply to all campuses unless otherwise indicated.

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Dear friend of Madison College:

Maintaining an environment that is conducive to teaching and learning is critical to the success of every student we serve. To do so, we must first ensure the safety and security of our students and employees. That is our foremost obligation and a responsibility we take seriously.

This Madison College 2024 Annual Campus Security Report provides current and prospective students, parents and others who influence college choice and our faculty and staff with accurate statistics and information that illustrate our collective commitment to safety and crime prevention. These statistics are also a measure of accountability that gauge the effectiveness of our Public Safety department's efforts to reduce crime and minimize harm to members of our campus community and the thousands of guests we welcome throughout the year.

You'll also discover information about college services and crime prevention programs that help to inform our campus community and visitors of safety practices that reduce the risk of becoming the victim of a crime.

Overall, you will find the environment of Madison College to be safe and favorable to the acquisition of knowledge and skills our students expect and employers demand. A sense of security and sanctuary also promotes a positive attitude amongst the employees who serve them.

Safety is a shared responsibility between Public Safety Services and every member of the college community. If you are a witness to or a victim of a crime, or if you observe activities that are suspicious and out of the ordinary, please inform Public Safety Services at (608) 245-2222 as soon as possible.

We hope you find this information to be helpful and informative. Moreover, we share every good wish that your time at Madison College will be safe and enjoyable. If you have any questions or concerns, please visit the Public Safety Services website at madisoncollege.edu/public-safety or contact us at (608) 246-6932.

At your service,

Jack E. Daniels, III, Ph.D.
President

ABOUT MADISON COLLEGE

Madison Area Technical College (“Madison College” or “the college”) is the technical and community college for the greater Madison area. It provides accessible, high-quality instruction and technical experience to meet the needs of its students, community, and area employers.

Founded in 1912 to teach vocational skills, today Madison College is a nationally recognized community college. It is one of the largest of the Wisconsin Technical College System’s 16 districts and serves approximately 38,000 students annually. It provides a comprehensive curriculum of technical, liberal arts and sciences, adult basic education and continuing education, as well as customized training for employers. The college awards associate degrees, technical diplomas, certificates, electronic badges, and offers classes that transfer to four-year degree programs.

Madison College has earned a solid reputation for high quality, practical and affordable education. It offers smaller classes, dedicated teachers, and personalized attention. It also offers a variety of online and other distance-learning courses. More than 90 percent of Madison College graduates are employed soon after graduation. In addition, satisfaction scores among Madison College graduates and their employers routinely rate above 90 percent.

Madison College provides training for more than 100 careers, including high-tech fields such as biotechnology, broadcast captioning, automated manufacturing, Internet development, computer networking and information technology security. Its varied degree programs include accounting, marketing, culinary arts, nursing, automotive technology, criminal justice (law enforcement) and welding.

Madison College offers a wide selection of liberal studies classes that transfer to four-year colleges and universities. Madison College is the single largest source of students transferring to the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the UW System in general and is one of the state’s leading providers of customized training for employers.

Students at Madison College can take advantage of counseling, advising and financial aid support services, as well as hundreds of club activities and events for entertainment, growth and development. Athletics include intercollegiate competition in nine sports. Madison College athletic teams often reach regional and national championships, and the college boasts national titles in baseball, women’s volleyball, and women’s basketball. The Truax facility offers a fully equipped Fitness Center which features state-of-the-art cardio and weight training equipment, basketball courts, and locker room facilities.

Madison College serves parts of 12 counties located in beautiful south-central Wisconsin. Madison College’s main Madison campus is in one of the top-ranked places to live in the United States. It is easy to enjoy the Madison area’s lakes, rolling hills, year-round sports and recreation activities and diversity of entertainment, nightlife and culture.

Madison College's regional campuses are in the communities of Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg and Watertown. In addition, the college offers instruction in hundreds of locations throughout its district.

PUBLIC SAFETY SERVICES PERSONNEL

Madison College Public Safety Services is a 24 hour, seven day-a-week service. The Public Safety Services main office is located in the main building at the Truax campus. Public Safety Services operates a second location at the college's Goodman South Campus. Public Safety Services is staffed by administrators, public safety officers, student help officers, security technicians and dispatchers.

Duties of Public Safety Officers include:

- Routine patrols of campus-owned and leased facilities
- Noise abatement of loud individuals
- Eviction of non-affiliated persons
- Parking control of district parking lots and restricted areas
- Medical assistance to sick or injured students, employees, and visitors
- Provide 24-hour access to campus facilities when requested and approved

Student interns are typically hired directly from the college's Criminal Justice program. Along with academic training provided by the Criminal Justice program, Public Safety student interns receive training in report writing, patrol operations, self-defense and professional communications. Public Safety student interns work primarily at the Truax Campus and the Goodman South Campus.

Leadership of Public Safety Services is provided by the Director of Public Safety and Risk Management under the organization of the Executive Vice President of Finance and Administration. The Director is responsible for the overall guidance and management of the unit district wide. This includes managing daily operations, personnel issues, and duty assignments for all officers (including Public Safety student interns) and dispatchers. Security technicians also report to the Director.

ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY AND JURISDICTION

Public Safety Officers (including Public Safety student interns) enforce Madison College policies and regulations. While working in the role of a Public Safety Officer at Madison College, Public Safety Officers (including Public Safety student interns) do NOT hold statutory powers of arrest and do NOT enforce violations of the law. Public Safety Officers (including Public Safety student interns) have jurisdictional authority of Madison College owned or controlled properties only.

Officers do not have jurisdiction on city streets, including those running through or adjacent to the campuses.

Public Safety Services works closely with the police departments of the City of Madison, town of Madison, Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg, Watertown, and other jurisdictions to enforce federal, state, and municipal laws. This cooperative team-based approach allows for the resolution of situations as they arise as well as addresses possible future concerns of the college community.

If an individual violates the law, Public Safety Services would contact the appropriate local law enforcement agency to address the incident, when necessary. Public Safety Officers are not responsible for monitoring and/or responding to criminal activity that occurs at off-campus locations but will respond to all criminal activity occurring on Madison College owned or controlled property.

RELATIONSHIPS WITH LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

Public Safety Services works closely with the police departments of the City of Madison, town of Madison, Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg, Watertown, and other jurisdictions as necessary to enforce federal, state and municipal laws and the Madison College Student Code of Conduct. This is done by uniformed patrol officers via foot, bicycle and/or marked squad cars conducting routine patrols of both the interior and exterior of the buildings/facilities and grounds at the Truax Campus, Commercial Avenue Campus, Foundation Center, and Goodman South Campus. Routine patrols are not conducted by Public Safety Officers at the Fort Atkinson Campus, Portage Campus, Reedsburg Campus, Watertown Campus, or Public Safety Training Facility; however, Campus Operations Managers and others report safety or facility concerns to Public Safety Services.

Madison College uniformed patrol officers conduct semi-regular patrols via marked squad car of Madison College-owned and leased buildings outside of Dane County. Public Safety Officers or local law enforcement officers will respond to regional campus locations when an incident necessitates such response. Other jurisdictions including Dane County Sheriff's Department and Wisconsin State Police may be contacted when the incident warrants.

Madison College does NOT hold Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs) with the local enforcement authorities, which include the City of Madison, town of Madison, Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg or Watertown Police Departments, regarding the investigation of criminal incidents; however, those agencies would be the primary investigative agencies in their respective jurisdictions for matters of criminal activity.

Public Safety Services does hold a Memorandum of Understanding with the Wisconsin State Capitol Police Department to provide dispatch services. The hours for this service are Monday through Friday from 10 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. and 24 hours on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Calls made to the Public Safety Services Emergency and After-hours Number at 608-245-2222 are automatically forwarded to the Wisconsin State Capitol Police Department during those times that the Wisconsin State Capitol Police Department provides dispatch services.

Involvement of Law Enforcement and Campus Authorities

Although Madison College strongly encourages all members of its community to report crimes to law enforcement (including Public Safety Services), it is the victim’s choice whether to make such a report. Furthermore, victims have the right to decline to notify law enforcement. However, Madison College will assist any victim with notifying law enforcement if the victim so desires. Table 1, Local Law Enforcement Agencies, provides contact information for the police departments that serve the various communities in which Madison College campuses are located:

REPORTING PROCEDURES FOR CRIMES AND EMERGENCIES

CRIME OR INCIDENT REPORTING

Madison College encourages all persons attending or visiting the campus to accurately and promptly report:

- All actual or perceived criminal acts
- Other incidents of a suspicious nature
- Any emergency on campus, on public property running through or immediately adjacent to the campus, or in property that is owned or controlled by Madison College
- When someone needs medical assistance.

Timely reporting is encouraged so the appropriate follow-up, assistance, or investigation can be provided.

There is no single source for filing a report. It is preferred that reports be made to Public Safety Services so the incident can be assessed for distributing a potential timely warning notice and for disclosure in the daily crime log/annual crime statistics.

- Reports can be made in person, by telephone or by email at either Public Safety Services location:

Public Safety Services

Truax Campus, Room B1240
Email: PublicSafety@madisoncollege.edu
Telephone: (608) 245-2222

Public Safety Services

Goodman South Campus, Room 101
Email: PublicSafety@madisoncollege.edu
Telephone: (608) 245-2222

- Reports can be made to local law enforcement for the respective jurisdiction. (Refer to Table 1 which appears earlier in this document.)
- Reports can be made at the main office of a Madison metro or regional campus or to a campus administrator:

Fort Atkinson Campus Main Office

Email: fortatkinson@madisoncollege.edu
Telephone: (920) 568-7200

Email: deanofstudents@madisoncollege.edu
Telephone: (608) 243-4555
- Reports can be filed with Civil Rights and Compliance:
Civil Rights and Compliance
Truax Campus, Room B2214
Email: civilrightsandcompliance@madisoncollege.edu
Telephone: (608) 246-6900
- Reporting of crimes or other emergencies can also be accomplished district-wide by:
 - Visiting the Public Safety Services main office location at the Truax Campus (Window hours are Monday to Friday, 6:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.)
 - Calling the Public Safety Services Emergency & After-hours Number at (608)-245-2222.
 - Using a courtesy telephone on campus
 - Reporting to a local law enforcement agency
 - Informing a Public Safety Officer

Public Safety Services Office Locations

Truax Campus Main Office (Room B1240)

The Public Safety Services main office is located in room B1240 of the main building on the Truax Campus. The Dispatch Center is also located in this room, fully capable of dispatching the appropriate officer(s) to any developing incident occurring on campus. In the instance of a delayed report, an officer will be assigned to respond to and investigate any incident as requested.

Goodman South Campus Office (Room 101)

Public Safety Services also has an office location at the Goodman South Campus in Room 101.

Public Safety Services Emergency & After-hours Telephone Number: (608) 245-2222

The Public Safety Services emergency and after-hours telephone number is answered 24 hours per day, seven days per week by a human dispatcher; in other words, a caller will never be directed to a voice mail message when calling this number. All dispatchers answering the emergency and after-hours telephone number are trained on how to gather essential information from callers and in how to assist callers during a time of crisis or panic.

Courtesy Telephones

Interspersed throughout the Madison College campuses are courtesy telephones that may be used by any member of the college community. These telephones can be found on all floors of any building and are clearly labeled. All courtesy telephones can be used to dial any Madison College internal extension, simply by dialing the last four numbers of the telephone number. For example, Public Safety Services can be reached internally by dialing 2222. Police, fire and EMS assistance can be accessed by dialing 911.

Off-Campus Reporting

Madison College Public Safety Officers do not hold statutory powers of arrest and their jurisdiction is limited to Madison College-owned or operated facilities. Therefore, Public Safety Officers are unable to monitor or provide law enforcement services to students and employees while they are off campus. Public Safety Services works closely with the police departments of the City of Madison, town of Madison, Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg and Watertown, as well as other local jurisdictions to enforce federal, state and municipal laws.

This cooperative, team-based approach allows for the resolution of situations as they arise as well as addresses possible future concerns of the college community.

Reporting to Meet Disclosure Requirements

Members of the community are helpful when they immediately report crimes or emergencies for purposes of including them in the annual statistical disclosure and assessing them for issuing a Timely Warning Notice, when deemed necessary, to Madison College Public Safety Services and/or the following:

- Campus administrator office of a Madison metro or regional campus:

Fort Atkinson Campus Main Office

Email: fortatkinson@madisoncollege.edu

Telephone: (920) 568-7200

Portage Campus Main Office

Email: portageoffice@madisoncollege.edu

Telephone: (608) 745-3100

Watertown Campus Main Office

Email: wttntoffice@madisoncollege.edu

Telephone: (920) 206-8000

Goodman South Madison Campus Main Office

Email: southinfo@madisoncollege.edu

Telephone: (608) 243-4200

Reedsburg Campus Main Office

Email: reedsburg@madisoncollege.edu

Telephone: (608) 524-7800

- Dean of Students Office

Telephone: (608) 243-4555

- Civil Rights and Compliance

Truax Campus, Room B2214

Email: civilrightsandcompliance@madisoncollege.edu

Telephone: (608) 246-6900

Crimes should be accurately and promptly reported to Madison College Public Safety Services or the appropriate police agency, when the victim of a crime elects to, or is unable to, make such a report.

Monitoring and Recording of Criminal Activity by Students at Non-campus Locations of Recognized Student Organizations

Madison College does not have officially recognized student organizations that own or control non-campus housing facilities. Therefore, local law enforcement does not monitor and record criminal activity since there are no non-campus locations of student organizations.

Public Safety Officers

Incidents can be reported in person to a Public Safety Officer making routine patrols of the campuses. All Public Safety Officers are trained in advanced recognition of criminal activity or suspicious behavior and can properly facilitate a response to any criminal act and/or situation. In response to reported incidents, all contacts with Public Safety Officers are documented and when deemed necessary, an Incident Report will be generated and completed in a timely manner. Public Safety Officers shall then decide whether outside assistance from other authorities is needed or if internal resources are sufficient to effectively address the matter.

RESPONSE TO REPORTS

Dispatchers are available at the Public Safety Services emergency and after-hours telephone number 24 hours a day to answer calls. In response to a call, Public Safety Services will take the required action—either dispatching an officer or asking the reporting party to visit the Public Safety Services main office at the Truax Campus to file an incident report. All reported crimes occurring on campus will be investigated by the college and may become a matter of public record.

In response to reported incidents, all contacts with Public Safety Services are documented and when deemed necessary, an Incident Report will be generated and completed in a timely manner. Public Safety Officers shall then decide whether outside assistance from other authorities is needed or if internal resources are sufficient to effectively address the matter.

Reports made to the main office of a Madison College metro or regional campus or to a campus administrator will be assessed by the campus administrator. The campus administrator will assess the situation and determine if immediate response from local law enforcement is necessary. Regardless of local law enforcement response to the campus, the campus administrator will also notify Public Safety Services of a reported crime.

All Public Safety Incident Reports involving violations of the Student Code of Conduct are forwarded to the Dean of Students Office for review and action, including referral to the Behavioral Intervention Team, Conduct Review Board or Civil Rights Response Team for potential action, as appropriate.

Public Safety Officers will investigate a report when it is deemed appropriate. Additional information obtained via the investigation will also be forwarded to identified professional resources as necessary. If assistance is required from a Police Department, Fire Department, or other emergency service agency of a particular jurisdiction, Public Safety Services will contact the appropriate unit. If a sexual assault should occur, staff on the scene, including Public Safety Services, will refer the victim to support services.

Supportive Measures

Supportive measures are made available when the college receives notice, complaint or knowledge of allegations of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant and/or the respondent. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to Madison College's education programs or activities without unreasonably burdening the other party. Such measures can be requested by the parties involved and are subject to approval. These may include, but are not limited to:

- Counseling
- Extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments
- Modifications of work or class schedules
- Employee Assistance Program
- Campus safety services
- Mutual restrictions on contact between the parties
- Work accommodations
- Leaves of absence
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus
- No contact orders (Violations of no contact orders will be referred to appropriate student or employee conduct processes for enforcement.)
- Safety planning
- Or similar measures

VOLUNTARY CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING POLICY

Madison College encourages all persons attending or visiting the campus to accurately and promptly report crimes or other emergencies to Public Safety Services. Due to Wisconsin's Open Records Law, Madison College does not have a voluntary confidential reporting process. Public Safety Services reports are educational records and not law enforcement reports, thus Public Safety Services cannot hold reports of crime in confidence.

Anonymous Reporting

If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the college system or the criminal justice system, you may still want to disclose the incident to Public Safety Services for reporting purposes only. You can file a report on the details of the incident to a Public Safety Officer and maintain anonymity. This will, in most cases, allow Public Safety Services to keep your identity confidential, while still taking steps to enhance your future safety and the safety of others. With such information, Madison College can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, employees, and guests; determine possible patterns of crime with regard to location, method, or assailant; and alert the campus community to potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for Madison College.

Confidential Reporting

Public Safety Services firmly supports and encourages the concept of preserving the confidentiality of reports by pastoral and professional counselors. (Refer to the Pastoral and Professional Counselors Section for more information.)

With such information, Public Safety Services can:

- Keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving students, employees, and guests
- Determine whether a pattern of crime may exist at a particular location, method or assailant
- Maximize efforts to prevent the criminal act in question by proactive means

Regardless, it will allow Public Safety Services to alert the campus community of potential danger. Reports filed in this manner are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for Madison College.

Campus Security Authorities

Those employees having a significant responsibility for student discipline and campus judicial proceedings, as well as employees with responsibility for other student and campus activities, will be identified as Campus Security Authorities. This includes Public Safety Services as well as other identified employees who have the authority and the duty to act or respond to issues on behalf of the institution.

Counseling Services Confidential Reporting Statement

Madison College Professional Counselors, when acting as such, are NOT considered to be campus security authorities for The Clery Act purposes and are not required to report crimes for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

PASTORAL AND PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS

Pastoral Counselor

An employee of an institution, who is associated with a religious order or denomination, recognized by that religious order or denomination as someone who provides confidential counseling and who is functioning within the scope of that recognition as a pastoral counselor.

Madison College does not employ pastoral counselors.

Professional Counselor

An employee of an institution whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the institution's community, and who is functioning within the scope of their license or certification.

Madison College counselors are required by law and by professional ethics to protect the confidentiality of all communication between counselor and client. In situations involving danger and/or risk of imminent harm, counselors are required to disclose certain information to protect those involved.

In certain situations, such as compliance with court orders, counselors are required to disclose certain information as necessary to comply with legal requirements. When possible, counselors will discuss the procedures for doing this and enlist the client's assistance in the resolution of a situation that necessitates such disclosure.

Counselors are encouraged to inform people being counseled of the procedures to report crimes to Public Safety Services on a voluntary and anonymous basis for inclusion in the annual crime statistics.

Madison College does not have a voluntary confidential reporting procedure and therefore, professional counselors cannot notify their clients of that type of reporting option at Madison College.

DAILY CRIME LOG

Madison College Public Safety Services maintains a Daily Crime Log, which lists criminal incidents and alleged criminal incidents reported to Public Safety Services. The Daily Crime Log is available for review Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., excluding holidays:

- In room B1240 of the main building at the Truax Campus
- In room 101 at the Goodman South Campus
- Online at madisoncollege.edu/public-safety (To access online, scroll down to the “Important Public Safety Pages” banner and select “Crime Log and Security Report.”)

TIMELY WARNING NOTICES

In the event that a Clery Act crime is reported to Public Safety Services that has occurred on or within Madison College’s Clery Geography (on-campus, public property, and non-campus property) and in the judgment of the Director of Public Safety and Risk Management or designee (and in consultation with responsible authorities when time permits) is considered to pose a serious or ongoing threat to students, employees, or guests a Timely Warning Notice may be issued. The warning will be issued to the entire campus community using numerous methods in a manner that is timely, that withholds the names of victims as confidential, and that will aid in the prevention of similar occurrences.

Timely Warning Notices may be distributed for the following Uniform Crime Reporting Program (UCR)/National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) classifications:

- Major incidents of arson
- Murder/non-negligent manslaughter and robbery
- Aggravated assault (on a case-by-case basis, depending on the facts of the case and the information known by Public Safety Services)
- Sex offenses (on a case-by-case basis, depending on the facts of the case and the information known by Public Safety Services)
- A string of burglaries or motor vehicle thefts that occur in reasonably close proximity to one another
- Other Clery crimes as determined necessary by the Director of Public Safety and Risk Management or designee.

In cases involving sexual assault, they are often reported after the incident occurred, thus there is no ability to distribute a “timely” warning notice to the community. Sex offenses will be considered on a case-by-case basis depending on when and where the incident occurred, when it was reported, and the amount of information known by Public Safety Services.

Timely warning notices will not include any information to identify the victim. Information that could compromise law enforcement efforts may also be withheld.

The Director of Public Safety and Risk Management or designee reviews all crime reports to determine if there is a serious or on-going threat to the community and if the distribution of a Timely Warning Notice is warranted.

Timely Warning Notices generally will be written by the Director of Public Safety and Risk Management or designee, approved by the Chief Marketing and Communications Officer or another member of the President’s leadership team and initially distributed by Public Safety Services as soon as possible after the incident is reported. The decision to issue a Timely Warning Notice is made on a case-by-case basis. The Director of Public Safety and Risk Management may consult with other college leaders for assistance in disseminating the Timely Warning Notice depending on the selected method of communication. Any of the communication methods referenced in Table 2, Timely Warning Communication Matrix, may be used to distribute Timely Warning Notices.

Table 2 distinguishes between the “Primary Methods of Communication” (those that will always be used no matter the nature of the crime or emergency prompting the alert) and the “Secondary Methods of Communication” (those that may be used based on the specific circumstances and at the discretion of appropriate institutional officials).

Follow up notices/communications will be provided as necessary and may be distributed using any of the methods identified in Table 2. In some instances, press releases may be disseminated to local radio and television stations for mass broadcast. If any of the communication systems fail, a method of face-to-face communication may be implemented, when deemed necessary.

Timely Warning Notices will be distributed as soon as pertinent information is available, in a manner that withholds the names of victims as confidential, and with the goal of aiding in the prevention of similar future occurrences.

The institution is not required to issue a Timely Warning Notice with respect to crimes reported to a professional counselor. Madison College does not employ pastoral counselors.

Madison College's Community Protection Obligation

The college has a responsibility to its community when the code of behavior and/or regulations of the college are violated. The college's actions are not dependent upon the victim's filing of a complaint with the college or with proper law enforcement authorities. Additionally, college disciplinary action may continue even if criminal charges are initiated and subsequently dropped.

It may be appropriate and necessary that the college community be alerted that an assault has taken place using timely warnings or immediate notification messages. The Director of Public Safety and Risk Management along with the Chief Marketing and Communications Officer, or designee is responsible for coordinating the issuance of Timely Warning notifications.

CAMPUS SECURITY AND ACCESS CONTROL

ACCESS TO FACILITIES

During normal business hours, Madison College's academic and administrative offices are open to students, employees, third parties, and the community. During non-business hours, access to college facilities is given to those staff required to be present after-hours as part of their regularly scheduled job duties (i.e., Public Safety Services, Information Technology, Facilities, Athletics, etc.).

- Employees, not already granted after-hours access, desiring access to the Truax Main Campus Buildings, Commercial Avenue Campus, Foundation Center, or Goodman South Campus during non-business hours should contact Public Safety Services for further information and assistance.
- Employees, not already granted after-hours access, desiring access to the Fort Atkinson Campus, Portage Campus, Reedsburg Campus, or Watertown Campus during non-business hours should contact the Campus Operations Manager for the respective campus for assistance.
- Employees, not already granted after-hours access, desiring access to the Public Safety Training Facility during non-business hours should contact the Program Director or the School of Human and Protective Services.

Many campuses and offices have individual hours, and the hours may vary at different times of the year. Access to offices and buildings is controlled by key cards after normal business hours. Madison College uses a card access locking system comprised of online and off-line locks. This allows greater access control throughout the district and allows a faster response when an access card is lost, misplaced or stolen. All access cards are property of Madison College and must be returned upon request by the proper authority. Madison College is a non-residential institution with no residential facilities at any of its campuses.

CAMPUS SECURITY

Public Safety Officers conduct routine security patrols of the buildings/facilities and grounds at the Truax Campus, Commercial Avenue Campus, Foundation Center, and Goodman South Campus. Routine patrols are not conducted by Public Safety Officers at the Fort Atkinson Campus, Portage Campus, Reedsburg Campus, Watertown Campus, or Public Safety Training Facility; however, Campus Operations Managers and others report safety or facility concerns to Public Safety Services.

Buildings and facilities are checked for any potential security-related issue such as malfunctioning locks or burned-out lights, which are promptly reported to facilities services for repair. Public Safety Services staff or Campus Operations Managers also monitor a closed circuit security camera system for things such as unauthorized access to campus buildings, personal safety of students and employees, and protection of property.

Madison College does not have student residential facilities.

MAINTENANCE OF CAMPUS FACILITIES

Madison College campus facilities and landscaping are maintained in a manner that minimizes hazardous and unsafe conditions. Parking lots and pathways are illuminated with lighting. Public Safety Services regularly patrols campus grounds and buildings within Madison to assess safety and security issues. Public Safety Services as well as identified campus staff regularly patrol campus grounds and buildings at the regional campuses to assess safety and security issues.

Malfunctioning lights and other unsafe physical conditions are reported to facility services for correction. Other members of the college community are helpful when they report equipment problems to Public Safety Services or to facility services.

WEAPONS POLICY

Madison College is committed to promoting a safe environment for students, employees, and guests. As part of that commitment, and subject to state and federal law, this policy prohibits firearms or weapons of any type, concealed or unconcealed, on college property. Signs are posted at each entrance of college facilities.

- Though Wisconsin has a concealed carry law, the right to carry a concealed handgun or other weapon does not apply to anyone when on college property, regardless of whether an individual has a license to carry a concealed weapon.
- Employees are also prohibited from possessing or carrying weapons while acting in the course and scope of their employment or job duties, and, to the extent permissible by law, whether on or off college property as well as in any location in which an employee represents the college for business purposes.
- Employees authorized in accordance with Wisconsin law may store a concealed weapon in their personal vehicle, which is driven or parked on college property, as long as the concealed weapon is properly secured in a locked vehicle and is not visible to passers-by.

This policy does not apply to the following:

- College security personnel carrying authorized weapons acting within the scope of their employment.
- Certified law enforcement personnel conducting official business on college property, and/or taking certification or training classes.
- Authorized instructors in the School of Human and Protective Services performing instructional and educational-related training activities.

- Non-sworn college law enforcement academy students only when using a college-owned training weapon provided during an official law enforcement academy class or an official training session and only under the supervision of a state of Wisconsin certified law enforcement instructor.

If anyone suspects an immediate threat to public safety, call 911.

If an employee has reason to believe that an individual has a weapon (whether concealed or non-concealed) on college property, the employee is required to report it to Public Safety Services and their supervisor or the Vice President of Human Resources/Chief Human Resources Officer.

Questions about whether an item is covered by this policy, should be referred to Public Safety Services at (608) 246-6932. Employees are responsible for ensuring that any item in their possession is not prohibited by this policy.

Retaliation against an employee who, in good faith, reports a violation or assists in an investigation of such a report is not tolerated.

Discipline

Employees in violation of this policy may be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

Students in violation of this policy are subject to discipline according to the Student Code of Conduct. students.madisoncollege.edu/resources/student-services/dean-students/conduct

Guests or community members who violate this policy may no longer be allowed on college property.

Definitions

Weapons

Weapons include, but are not limited to, firearms (whether loaded or unloaded), knives, billy clubs, electronic controlled devices (conducted energy devices, stun guns, tasers), ammunition, explosives, and any other device or instrument which, in the manner it is used or intended to be used, could cause death or great bodily harm.

Madison College Property

College property includes, without limitation, college owned or leased space and college-owned vehicles whether they are on college property.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE & EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Madison College's Emergency Response Plans are a resource for Madison College students, employees, and guests designed to provide information and guidelines in planning and responding to a crisis. The plan outlines incident priorities, campus organization and specific responsibilities of certain departments on campus. While the plan does not cover every conceivable contingency situation, it does supply the basic administrative guidelines necessary to respond to most campus emergencies.

Public Safety Officers and Campus Operations Managers are trained to respond to emergencies on campus according to the Emergency Response Plan. If a serious incident occurs that poses an immediate threat to the campus, first responders include Public Safety Officers and the local emergency departments (police, fire, and EMS) for the respective location and jurisdiction.

Madison College Public Safety Services is responsible for developing contingency plans and continuity of operations plans for all Madison College campuses. Public Safety Services meets with identified stakeholders at the main, metro, and regional campuses to review the plans and ensure continuity.

DRILLS AND EXERCISES

In conjunction with other emergency agencies, Madison College conducts emergency response drills and exercises each year, such as tabletop exercises, field exercises, and tests of the emergency notification systems on campus. These regularly scheduled tests, and appropriate follow-through activities, which may be announced or unannounced, are designed to assess and evaluate emergency response plans and capabilities. Tests are documented and include a description of the exercise, the date and time of the exercise, and whether it was announced or unannounced.

The campus publicizes a summary of the emergency response and evacuation procedures via email at least once each year in conjunction with a test (exercise and drill) that meets all the requirements of the Higher Education Opportunity Act. This summary is disseminated via email to the Madison College community, typically in February of each year.

The Annual Security Report (ASR) also publicizes the emergency response and evacuation procedures. The ASR is disseminated via email to the Madison College community on an annual basis, typically by October 1. The Annual Security Report is also posted and available from the Public Safety Services webpage on the college's website. Emergency Procedures Guides are distributed to each campus for posting in classrooms, offices, and common areas.

IMMEDIATE (EMERGENCY) NOTIFICATION OF A THREAT

Madison College has developed a process to notify the college community in cases of emergency. While it is impossible to predict every significant emergency or dangerous situation that may occur on campus, the following identified situations are examples which may warrant an emergency (immediate) notification once the incident is confirmed:

- Armed/hostile intruder
- Bomb/explosives (threat)
- Communicable disease outbreak
- Severe weather
- Terrorist incident
- Civil unrest
- Natural disaster
- Hazardous materials incident
- Structural fire

In the event of an emergency, Madison College will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. Such notifications will be provided to the appropriate segment(s) of the college community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, employees, or guests.

Madison College community members are encouraged to notify Public Safety Services of any situation or incident on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students, employees, or guests on campus. Public Safety Services has the responsibility of responding to, and summoning the necessary resources, to mitigate, investigate and document any situation that may cause a significant emergency or dangerous situation. Individuals can report an emergency by contacting Public Safety Services at (608) 245-2222. Other methods for reporting crimes and other emergencies are identified in the "Reporting procedures for crimes and emergencies" section found earlier in this report. The Director of Public Safety and Risk Management or designee generally confirms the presence of an emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of the Madison College community in conjunction with key administrative units or personnel, such as Facility Services, the President's Office, the Executive Vice President of Finance & Administration, the Executive Vice President of Student Affairs & Institutional Effectiveness, the Chief Marketing and Communications Officer, Campus Operations Managers, and/or local first-responder agencies, and public health agencies.

Madison College will immediately notify the college community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or staff occurring on the campus using the systems described below (and identified in Table 3) to communicate the threat to the college community or to the appropriate segment of the community if the threat is limited to a particular building or segment of the population. Whether the message is sent to the college community or a segment of the community is determined by the primary message creator (as identified in Table 3), including determining the appropriate segment or segments of the college community to receive a notification. This may be the Director of Public Safety and Risk Management, the Chief Marketing and Communications Officer, or designee.

The identified Madison College staff will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities (including, but not limited to, Public Safety Services, the local Police Department, the local Fire Department), compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Various systems are in place for communicating information quickly in the event of a serious incident:

WolfPack Alert.

Mass text messages to cell phones and mass emails to computers and other electronic devices are primary methods for reaching the broadest audience. These instant messaging mechanisms are referred to internally as WolfPack Alerts. WolfPack Alert is a program provided by Public Safety Services at no cost to members of the Madison College community and accessible via downloadable application, available for both Apple and Android devices. Information regarding how to download WolfPack Alerts and access this free service is available online at madisoncollege.edu/wolfpack-alert.

All Public Safety Services team members are authorized to initiate and use the WolfPack Alert system.

The WolfPack Alert system also utilizes the existing Cisco IP Phone infrastructure at Madison College campuses to send text and voice messages to every Cisco IP Phone and large screen wall monitors/digital signage. Messaging can be directed to individual campuses or all campuses simultaneously depending on the identified segment of the population affected by the emergency.

Other Electronic Communications.

Public Safety Services will post emergency notifications to Madison College social media accounts (i.e., Facebook, Twitter), as well as the Public Safety Services website and Madison College website.

Fire Alarm System.

The fire alarm system may be activated to prompt individuals to evacuate the building in situations that such action is required. The use of this system, in conjunction with other communication methods identified in this section, will facilitate the most immediate response and effective notification of a critical incident. The use of the fire alarm system will be initiated by a manual pull station.

Public Address System.

Some information may be announced via public address systems located within and around various Madison College campus structures. Public address systems are not available at the Commercial Avenue Campus, Foundation Center, or Public Safety Training Facility.

Members of the larger community who are interested in receiving information about emergencies on campus can visit the Public Safety Services webpage at madisoncollege.edu/public-safety and download the free WolfPack mobile application, available for Apple and Android devices. Interested persons should also check the Madison College website at madisoncollege.edu to obtain updates in the event of an emergency on campus. When circumstances dictate, Madison College also will release relevant information regarding emergencies on campus via local news and media outlets.

If there is an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus, an institution must follow its emergency notification procedures. An institution that follows its emergency notification procedures is not required to issue a timely warning based on the same circumstances; however, the institution must provide adequate follow-up information to the community as needed.

Follow-up information for an immediate notification to the college community may be distributed using any of the methods described above (except fire alarm) or those identified in Table 3. If any of the communication systems fail, a method of face-to-face communication may be implemented, when deemed necessary.

Table 3 distinguishes between the “Primary Methods of Communication” (those that will always be used no matter the nature of the crime or emergency prompting the alert) and the “Secondary Methods of Communication” (those that may be used based on the specific circumstances and at the discretion of appropriate institutional officials).

EVACUATION PROCEDURES

When an evacuation of any campus building is deemed necessary, the use of the fire alarm system will be initiated by a manual pull station. The use of this system, in conjunction with the communication methods outlined for Timely Warnings and/or Immediate (Emergency) Notifications, will facilitate the most immediate response and effective notification of a critical incident. A test of the evacuation system is conducted on an annual basis.

Public Safety Services coordinates announced, and unannounced evacuation drills each year at all Madison College campus locations to test the emergency response and evacuation procedures, and to assess and evaluate the emergency evacuation plans and capabilities. Madison College publishes a summary of its emergency response and evacuation procedures in conjunction with at least one drill or exercise each calendar year.

The purpose of evacuation drills is to prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of a fire or other emergency. Evacuation drills are used to educate and train occupants on fire safety issues specific to each building and/or campus. During the drill, occupants “practice” drill procedures and familiarize themselves with the location of exits and the workings (sound and lights) of the fire alarm. In addition to educating the occupants of each building about the evacuation procedures during the drills, the process also provides the college an opportunity to test the operation of fire alarm system components.

Madison College conducts several tests per year of its WolfPack Alert system. These tests are designed to assess and evaluate the effectiveness of WolfPack Alert to deliver emergency messages in a timely and efficient manner. Some of the tests are announced and some are unannounced.

General Evacuation Procedures

At the sound of a fire alarm or if you are instructed to evacuate, leave your work area immediately and proceed to the nearest exit to leave the building. If you are the first to recognize a fire situation, activate the alarm, evacuate to a safe location using the nearest exit, and notify Public Safety Services at (608) 245-2222 or dial 911.

- Remain calm.
- Do NOT use elevators. Use the stairs.
- Assist the physically impaired. If they are unable to exit without using an elevator, secure a safe location within a stairwell, and immediately inform Public Safety Services or the responding Fire Department of the individual's location.
- Proceed to a clear area at least 150 feet from the building.
- Keep all walkways clear for emergency vehicles.
- Make sure all personnel are out of the building.
- Do not re-enter the building.

Shelter in Place: What It Means to Shelter in Place

Sheltering in place provides protection from external hazards, minimizes the chance of injury and/or provides the time necessary to allow for a safe evacuation. This should be done by selecting a small, interior room if possible, with no or as few windows as possible. When authorities issue directives to shelter in place, do not walk outdoors; take refuge indoors immediately.

Reasons to Shelter in Place

A shelter in place order may be issued for several reasons, including but not limited to:

- Active shooter
- Severe weather
- Hazardous materials
- Civil unrest
- Hostage situation
- Any situation where it is best for you to stay where you are to avoid any outside threat

When a shelter in place order occurs, general guidance is to:

- Remain calm.
- Do not exit or go outside.
- Select a small interior room above ground floor with the fewest windows or air vents as possible.
- Room(s) should have adequate space for everyone to be able to sit down comfortably.
- Avoid overcrowding by selecting several rooms when necessary.
- Close and lock all windows, exterior doors, and any other openings that lead to the outside.
- Stay away from all windows and doors.
- Facilities personnel or other trained staff should shut down all building ventilation fans and air conditioners, when and if appropriate.
- If you are told there is danger of explosion, close the window shades, blinds or curtains.

Severe Weather

When a shelter in place order occurs due to severe weather:

- Stay inside and move away from windows.
- Close and lock all exterior doors and offices.
- For extreme weather, relocate to lower levels of the building.

External Chemical, Biological or Radiological Incidents

When a shelter in place order occurs due to chemical, biological, or radiological incidents:

- Stay inside and move to an inner corridor or office.
- Since many chemical agents are heavier than air and tend to hold close to the ground, move to higher levels of the building, if possible, to reduce the transfer of contaminated air from outside to inside.
- Remain alert for instructions and updates as they become available from the emergency personnel and designated college personnel.
- Facilities personnel or other trained staff may shut down all building ventilation fans and air conditioners, when and if appropriate.

CRIME PREVENTION AND SECURITY AWARENESS

Creating a safe campus is the responsibility of the entire college community. The best mechanism for crime prevention and security awareness is for students and employees to be responsible and use good judgment regarding their safety and security. Public Safety Services encourages students and employees to be responsible for their own safety and the safety and wellness of others.

Madison College utilizes several security awareness and crime prevention programs to assist in deterring and reducing crime on campus. These programs deal with campus security awareness, crime prevention, personal protection, and protection of community members both on and off campus. Examples of topics that might be discussed include, but are not limited to:

- Sexual violence prevention (including awareness of rape, acquaintance rape, as well as other sex offenses)
- Reporting harassment
- Property theft reduction
- Vehicle theft reduction
- Alcohol abuse
- Workplace violence
- Other crime-related issues concerning campus life

Crime prevention and security awareness programs are delivered throughout the year and are offered with the assistance and cooperation of other college departments and organizations such as the Dean of Students Office, Employee Wellness, Student Life, and student government. Table 4 identifies the number of crime prevention and security awareness programs offered in 2023.

TABLE 4. 2023 SAFETY AWARENESS AND CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAMS
Primary prevention and security awareness programs	16
Ongoing prevention and security awareness programs	6

The following describes the primary and ongoing safety awareness and crime prevention programs offered by Madison College.

WolfPack Welcome (New Student Orientation)

Information about the role and function of Public Safety Services is shared with new students during orientation known as WolfPack Welcome. Information about how to access Public Safety Services and related campus safety and security support are described. Students are introduced to Public Safety Services team members and encouraged to reach out for assistance. WolfPack Welcome is coordinated by Student Life each fall and spring semesters.

New Student Daze

Students can stop by the Public Safety Services office to learn safety tips, helpful hints, and any other information that students want to know about the department, parking policies, and safety and security at Madison College from Public Safety Officers.

New Employee Orientation

The Director of Public Safety and Risk Management or designee attends new employee orientation each month to meet new employees and share information about the role and function of Public Safety Services at Madison College. Employee responsibility in crime reporting is described and new employees learn how to file an incident report with Public Safety Services. All college employees are encouraged to attend New Employee Orientation within the first three months of hire at the college.

Bystander Intervention

Madison College offers bystander intervention and related training for individuals and groups interested in learning how they can stop sexual violence from happening. Trainings are offered at minimum on an annual basis and are coordinated through the Dean of Students Office. Additional offerings can be scheduled by contacting the Dean of Students Office by telephone at 608-243-4555 or by email at deanofstudents@madisoncollege.edu.

Coffee with Public Safety

“Meet & Greet” type event that is open to all members of the Madison College community and occurs twice per year. Community members are provided an opportunity to mingle with members of Public Safety Services, get to know the Officers, and discuss community member comments or concerns.

Active Shooter Preparedness

The Madison College Public Safety Services Department offers presentations for active shooter preparedness to departments and student groups within the college. Public Safety Services discusses best practices for active shooter or violent intruder events that include preparation, evacuation routes, barricading techniques, etc. Public Safety Officers also work with departments within the college to identify best practices specific to the department’s location. Anyone interested in attending the active shooter preparedness training, should contact the Public Safety Services non-emergency telephone number at (608) 246-6932. The college’s Active Shooter Protocol is also published on the college’s website.

Presentations

As part of the department’s community-oriented policing philosophy, Public Safety Services offers crime prevention presentations each semester to classes, campus clubs, student groups, and employee groups when requested. Topics include, but are not limited to, campus-specific security and evacuation procedures, active shooter response techniques, general crime prevention awareness, and other safety topics as requested by community members. Anyone interested in having a Public Safety Officer speak to their classroom or group should contact the Public Safety Services non-emergency telephone number at (608) 246-6932.

All crime prevention and security awareness programs encourage the college community, which includes students, employees, contractors, and guests, to be responsible for their own safety and the safety of others. Participants in these programs are asked to be alert, security-conscious and aware of potential risks. Individuals are encouraged to call Public Safety Services to report suspicious behavior. For additional questions regarding crime prevention, contact Public Safety Services directly at the non-emergency telephone number (608) 246-6932.

PERSONAL SAFETY TIPS

Public Safety Services offers the following tips to help ensure personal safety:

If someone tries to harm you:

- Stay calm and think rationally
- Remember what the attacker looks like
- Consider what you can do to defend yourself

Telephone Safety

On the telephone:

- List only first initials and last name in directories
- Do not divulge your name and address to people you don't know
- Hang up on obscene telephone callers immediately
- Never reveal that you are alone

Vehicle Safety

In a vehicle:

- Lock your doors and windows
- Park in well-lit areas
- Store valuables out of sight and lock them in the trunk when the car is parked
- If your car breaks down, activate emergency flashers
- Stay in the locked car
- If someone stops to help, ask the person to call for help for you
- Sound the horn if threatened
- Never pick up hitchhikers

Home Safety

At home:

- Re-key locks when moving into a previously rented residence or after keys have been lost or stolen
- Install deadbolt locks on all exterior doors and locks on windows
- Make sure shrubbery is trimmed away from entryways and windows
- Light entrances all night long

ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

In accordance with the federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, the federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act (DFSCA) of 1989, and State policies on Alcohol and Other Drugs, Madison College prohibits the unlawful or unauthorized possession, use, sale, or distribution of alcohol and other drugs by employees and students in the workplace, on college property, or as part of any campus activity. It is the intent of Madison College to uphold all local, state and federal laws concerning the possession, use and sale of alcohol and controlled substances, and will support campus community efforts to reduce or eliminate violations of such laws. Employee or student violators are subject to disciplinary action.

Public Safety Services reports violations of law to the appropriate college department and works in collaboration with the police departments of the city of Madison, town of Madison, Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg, and Watertown, as well as other appropriate law enforcement authorities, who are responsible for enforcing state underage drinking laws as well as the enforcement of federal and state drug laws.

Public Safety Officers cannot directly enforce underage drinking laws or other violations of local, state and federal laws around alcohol and drugs, because the officers are not sworn law enforcement authorities. Public Safety Officers work closely with the respective jurisdictions to enforce federal, state and municipal laws. Table 5 outlines the law enforcement authorities that would be contacted for serious violations warranting a police response.

Petty violations by students or guests may be referred to the Dean of Students Office for potential action as a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Student violations of the policies and guidelines pertaining to alcohol and drug use specified in the Madison College Code of Conduct will result in sanctions appropriate to the degree of the violation. Student sanctions will include, but are not limited to, education, referrals for counseling, probation, suspension, or expulsion from the college.

Additional detail related to expectations for employees is outlined in the Madison College Employee Handbook. Violations by employees of the policies and guidelines pertaining to alcohol and drug use specified in the Madison College Employee Handbook may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment or referral to counseling for treatment.

DRUG FREE SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES ACT (DFSCA) COMPLIANCE

Madison College complies with the standards set forth in the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act and publishes information regarding the college's educational programs related to drug and alcohol abuse prevention; sanctions for violations of federal, state, and local laws and college policy; a description of health risks associated with alcohol and other drug use; and a description of available treatment programs for Madison College students and employees.

A complete description of these topics, as provided in the college's annual notification to students and employees, is available online at: students.madisoncollege.edu/resources/health/aoda. Possession, use, sale and distribution of alcohol, controlled substances and illegal drugs by students, employees, vendors and visitors on college property or at sponsored college events (except as specified in Regulation 211, Alcohol on Campus Regulation regarding the consumption of alcoholic beverages at college events), or by employees on district business while off campus without expressed authorization is strictly prohibited.

The police departments of the city of Madison, town of Madison, Fort Atkinson, Portage, Reedsburg, Watertown, or other jurisdictions have primary responsibility for the enforcement of State underage drinking laws as well as the enforcement of Federal and State drug laws. While Madison College Public Safety Officers are responsible for enforcing college policies and regulations, which may also constitute a violation of law, they are not primarily responsible for enforcement of underage drinking and drug laws. Public Safety Officers would contact the appropriate law enforcement authority (as outlined in Table 5 which appears earlier in this document) for assistance if a liquor or drug law violation warrants a law enforcement response.

In addition, no student, employee, or visitor shall be impaired by alcohol, controlled substances, illegal drugs, or in possession of any drug paraphernalia while on college property or at any college-sponsored activity, or in the case of employees, on district business that is conducted off-campus.

Students and employees violating the applicable policies may be subject to disciplinary action by the college and involvement by the local policing jurisdiction if necessary.

AWARENESS & PREVENTION PROGRAMS: ALCOHOL & DRUG ABUSE (AODA)

Madison College recognizes drug and alcohol dependency and/or abuse as a major health issue, as well as a problem of safety and security. Some of these issues include:

- Diseases of the liver, brain, heart, pancreas and every other organ and/or system in the body
- Depression, moodiness, disorientation and lack of inhibitions, which can lead to increased risk of accident, suicide and violent behavior including homicide
- Difficulties with memory, concentration, attention span, abstract reasoning and the ability to process perceptual information in a manner consistent with reality
- Spontaneous miscarriage and fetal malformations including physical, cognitive and emotional problems which can be permanent
- The risk of dependency and its related physical, mental, emotional, social, legal, family and financial problems.

A student in need of assistance in dealing with such problems is encouraged to contact an AOD Counselor in the Counseling and College Success Department at the department's main number: (608) 246-6076. Counselors in the department can assist students in working through alcohol or drug-related problems. Assistance is available to Madison College students at no cost.

Conscientious efforts to seek such help shall not in themselves jeopardize any student's enrollment and will not be noted in the student's educational record. Any assistance provided can be done anonymously and is kept completely confidential within legal guidelines. If needed, this could include referral to agencies providing AODA treatment.

Employees are encouraged to voluntarily contact the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for assistance with drug and/or alcohol abuse.

DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT & STALKING

Madison College prohibits the crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking (as defined by The Clery Act). In accordance with Title IX of the Educational Amendments Act of 1972 (Title IX), the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and consistent with Madison College's commitment to maintaining an environment in which students and employees can work and learn together in an atmosphere free of harassment and discrimination, Madison College has developed policies and procedures that provide a prompt, fair, and impartial process for investigating such allegations. Toward that end, Madison College issues this statement of policy to inform the campus community of our programs to address domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as well as the procedures for institutional disciplinary action in allegations of these offenses when the incident is reported to a college official.

All members of the Madison College community should become familiar with the college's Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy and the corresponding Grievance Process. Relevant information from the college's policy and grievance process are included in the sections that follow. The complete policy and grievance process documents can be accessed online at: madisoncollege.edu/about/public-information/civil-rights-compliance.

DEFINITIONS

Federal Clery Act Definitions

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of 34 CFR §668.41, any incident meeting the following definitions are considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting. The Clery Act defines the crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking as follows:

Domestic Violence

A Felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:

- A) By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
- B) By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
- C) By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- D) By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
- E) By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and §668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

Dating Violence

Violence committed by a person (a) who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the reporting party; and (b) where the existence of such a relationship shall be based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the following factors: (i) the length of the relationship, (ii) the type of relationship, and (iii) the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

For the purposes of this definition:

- Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
- Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Economic Abuse

Economic abuse, in the context of domestic violence and dating violence means behavior that is coercive, deceptive, or unreasonably controls or restrains a person's ability to acquire, use, or maintain economic resources to which they are entitled, including using coercion, fraud, or manipulation to

- Restrict a person's access to money, assets, credit, or financial information
- Unfairly use a person's personal economic resources, including money, assets, and credit, for one's own advantage; or
- Exert undue influence over a person's financial and economic behavior or decisions, including forcing default on joint or other financial obligations, exploiting powers of attorney, guardianship, or conservatorship, or failing or neglecting to act in the best interests of a person to whom one has a fiduciary duty.

Technological Abuse

The term 'technological abuse' means an act or pattern of behavior that occurs within domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking and is intended to harm, threaten, intimidate, control, stalk, harass, impersonate, exploit, extort, or monitor, except as otherwise permitted by law, another person, that occurs using any form of information technology, including: internet enabled devices, online spaces and platforms, computers, mobile devices, cameras and imaging platforms, apps, location tracking devices, communication technologies, or any other emerging technologies.

Sexual Assault

An offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program. Per the National Incident-Based Reporting System User Manual from the FBI UCR Program, a sex offense is "any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent."

- Rape is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
- Fondling is defined as the touching of the private parts of another person for the purposes of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
- Incest is defined as non-forcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape is defined as non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Stalking

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

- Fear for their safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition of stalking:

- Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person's property.
- Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

State of Wisconsin Definitions

Madison College is required by The Clery Act and the Violence Against Women Act to provide definitions of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking applicable in its jurisdiction which is inclusive of the college's main, metro, and regional campuses. Also included are the definitions of consent, sexual contact, and sexual intercourse.

Domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking are recognized as serious criminal offenses by Wisconsin statute and are defined as follows:

Domestic Abuse (Violence)

(Per state statute 968.075(1)). Any of the following engaged in by an adult person against his or her spouse or former spouse, against an adult with whom the person with whom the person resides or formerly resided, or with whom the person has a child in common:

- Intentional infliction of physical pain, physical injury or illness
- Intentional impairment of physical condition
- A violation of s. 940.225 (1), (2) or (3)
- A physical act that may cause the other person reasonably to fear imminent engagement in the conduct described under subd. 1., 2., or 5.

Dating Violence

The state of Wisconsin does not have a definition of dating violence per se. However, it does allow for "Dating Relationships" to be included within its definition of "Domestic Abuse." Wisconsin's definition of a Dating Relationship is "a romantic or intimate social relationship between two adult individuals but does not include a casual relationship or an ordinary fraternization between two individuals in a business or social context. A court shall determine if a dating relationship existed by considering the length of the relationship, the type of the relationship, and the frequency of the interaction between the adult individuals involved in the relationship."

Sexual Assault

(Per state statute 940.225). Sexual assault is categorized into four degrees of severity and defined as follows:

1. First degree - Whoever does any of the following is guilty of a Class B felony:
 - (a) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person and causes pregnancy or great bodily harm to that person.
 - (b) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person by use or threat of use of a dangerous weapon or any article used or fashioned in a manner to lead the victim reasonably to believe it to be a dangerous weapon.
 - (c) Is aided or abetted by one or more other persons and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person by use or threat of force or violence.
 - (d) Commits a violation under sub. (2) against an individual who is 60 years of age or older. This paragraph applies irrespective of whether the defendant had actual knowledge of the victim's age. A mistake regarding the victim's age is not a defense to a prosecution under this paragraph.

1. Second degree - Whoever does any of the following is guilty of a Class C felony:
 - (a) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person by use or threat of force or violence.
 - (b) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without consent of that person and causes injury, illness, disease or impairment of a sexual or reproductive organ, or mental anguish requiring psychiatric care for the victim.
 - (c) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who suffers from a mental illness or deficiency which renders that person temporarily or permanently incapable of appraising the person's conduct, and the defendant knows of such condition.
 - (cm) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is under the influence of an intoxicant to a degree which renders that person incapable of giving consent if the defendant has actual knowledge that the person is incapable of giving consent and the defendant has the purpose to have sexual contact or sexual intercourse with the person while the person is incapable of giving consent.
 - (d) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who the defendant knows is unconscious.
 - (f) Is aided or abetted by one or more other persons and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with another person without the consent of that person.
 - (g) Is an employee of a facility or program under s. 940.295 (2) (b), (c), (h) or (k) and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who is a patient or resident of the facility or program.
 - (h) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with an individual who is confined in a correctional institution if the actor is a correctional staff member. This paragraph does not apply if the individual with whom the actor has sexual contact or sexual intercourse is subject to prosecution for the sexual contact or sexual intercourse under this section.
 - (i) Has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with an individual who is on probation, parole, or extended supervision if the actor is a probation, parole, or extended supervision agent who supervises the individual, either directly or through a subordinate, in his or her capacity as a probation, parole, or extended supervision agent or who has influenced or has attempted to influence another probation, parole, or extended supervision agent's supervision of the individual. This paragraph does not apply if the individual with whom the actor has sexual contact or sexual intercourse is subject to prosecution for the sexual contact or sexual intercourse under this section.
 - (j) Is a licensee, employee, or nonclient resident of an entity, as defined in s. 48.685 (1) (b) or 50.065 (1) (c), and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a client of the entity.
 - (k) Is a law enforcement officer and has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with any person who is detained by any law enforcement officer, as provided under s. 968.24, or is in the custody of any law enforcement officer. This paragraph applies whether the custody is lawful or unlawful and whether the detainment or custody is actual or constructive. Consent is not an issue in an action under this paragraph.

3. Third degree
 - (a) Whoever has sexual intercourse with a person without the consent of that person is guilty of a Class G felony.
 - (b) Whoever has sexual contact in the manner described in sub. (5) (b) 2. or 3. with a person without the consent of that person is guilty of a Class G felony.

- (3m) Fourth degree - Except as provided in sub. (3), whoever has sexual contact with a person without the consent of that person is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

Sexual Contact

"Sexual contact" means any of the following:

1. Any of the following types of intentional touching, whether direct or through clothing, if that intentional touching is either for the purpose of sexually degrading; or for the purpose of sexually humiliating the complainant or sexually arousing or gratifying the defendant or if the touching contains the elements of actual or attempted battery under s. 940.19 (1):
 - (a) Intentional touching by the defendant or, upon the defendant's instruction, by another person, by the use of any body part or object, of the complainant's intimate parts.
 - (b) Intentional touching by the complainant, by the use of any body part or object, of the defendant's intimate parts or, if done upon the defendant's instructions, the intimate parts of another person.
2. Intentional penile ejaculation of ejaculate or intentional emission of urine or feces by the defendant or, upon the defendant's instruction, by another person upon any part of the body clothed or unclothed of the complainant if that ejaculation or emission is either for the purpose of sexually degrading or sexually humiliating the complainant or for the purpose of sexually arousing or gratifying the defendant.
3. For the purpose of sexually degrading or humiliating the complainant or sexually arousing or gratifying the defendant, intentionally causing the complainant to ejaculate or emit urine or feces on any part of the defendant's body, whether clothed or unclothed.

Sexual Intercourse

"Sexual intercourse" means vulvar penetration that does require emission, as well as cunnilingus, fellatio or anal intercourse between persons or any other intrusion, however slight, of any part of a person's body or of any object into the genital or anal opening either by the defendant or upon the defendant's instruction. The emission of semen is not required.

Incest

The state of Wisconsin, per statute 944.06, defines the crime of Incest as follows:

- Whoever marries or has non-marital sexual intercourse...with a person he or she knows is a blood relative and such relative (closer than 2nd cousin) is in fact related in a degree within which the marriage of the parties is prohibited by the law of this state.

Statutory Rape

The state of Wisconsin terms Statutory Rape or sexual intercourse with a person under the age of consent, "Sexual Assault of a Child (s. 948.02), and is divided into two degrees of severity. It is defined by the state as follows:

1. First degree
 - (a) Whoever has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who has not attained the age of 13 years and causes great bodily harm to the person is guilty of a Class A felony.
 - (b) Whoever has sexual intercourse with a person who has not attained the age of 12 years is guilty of a Class B felony.
 - (c) Whoever has sexual intercourse with a person who has not attained the age of 16 years by use or threat of force or violence is guilty of a Class B felony.
 - (d) Whoever has sexual contact with a person who has not attained the age of 16 years by use or threat of force or violence is guilty of a Class B felony if the actor is at least 18 years of age when the sexual contact occurs.

(e) Whoever has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who has not attained the age of 13 years is guilty of a Class B felony.

2. Second degree - Whoever has sexual contact or sexual intercourse with a person who has not attained the age of 16 years is guilty of a Class C felony.

Stalking

(Per state statute 940.32). An intentional and particular course of conduct engaged in by one person against another. This course of conduct means a series of two or more of the following acts carried out over time, however short or long, that show a continuity of purpose, including any of the following:

- Maintaining a visual or physical proximity to the victim.
- Approaching or confronting the victim.
- Appearing at the victim's workplace or contacting coworkers or employers of the victim.
- Appearing at the victim's home or contacting the victim's neighbors.
- Entering property owned, leased, or occupied by the victim.
- Contacting the victim by telephone, text message, electronic message, electronic mail, or other means of electronic communication or causing the victim's telephone or electronic device or any other person's telephone or electronic device to ring or generate notifications repeatedly, or continuously, regardless of whether or not the contact is acknowledged. a conversation ensues.
- Photographing, videotaping, audiotaping or, by other electronic means, monitoring or recording the victim's activities.
- Sending material by any means to the victim or the victim's family, member of the victim's household, employer, coworker or friend in order to obtain information about, disseminate information about or communicate with the victim.
- Placing an object on or delivering an object to property owned, leased or occupied by the victim.
- Delivering objects to others with the intent of delivery to the victim, or placing objects on property owned, leased or occupied by certain others with intent that it be delivered to the victim.

Consent

Wisconsin law defines consent as words or overt actions by a person who is competent to give informed consent indicating a freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse or sexual contact. Wis. Stat. § 940.225 (4). Consent is informed, freely and actively given, and mutually understood permission/agreement. If physical force, coercion, intimidation, and/or threats are used, there is no consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated or impaired so that they cannot understand the sexual situation, there is no consent. This includes impairment due to alcohol or drug consumption and being asleep or unconscious.

Madison College Policy Definitions

Consent and the purposes for which this definition is used, as defined in the college's Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy, and as it relates to sexual activity is defined as follows.

Consent

Madison College defines consent as, "the equal approval, given freely, willingly and knowingly of each participant to desired sexual involvement. Consent is an affirmative, conscious decision - indicated clearly by words or actions - to engage in mutually accepted sexual contact. A person compelled to engage in sexual contact by force, threat of force, or coercion has not consented to contact."

Understanding Consent

Consent is positive cooperation involving an act of free will, absent of coercion, intimidation, force or the threat of force. A person cannot give consent if they are unable to understand what is going on.

Lack of consent is a critical factor in determining whether Sexual Harassment has occurred. As defined above, consent is a mutual, voluntary, and informed agreement to participate in specific sexual acts with another person that is not achieved through unreasonable manipulation or coercion—or any kind of physical force or weapon—and requires having cognitive ability to agree to participate. Consent requires an outward demonstration, through mutually understandable words, conduct or action, indicating that an individual has freely chosen to engage in the specific sexual acts. A verbal “no” constitutes lack of consent, even if it sounds insincere or indecisive.

Impairment or incapacitation due to alcohol and/or drug use, permanent/ temporary psychological or physical disability, and being below the age of consent in the applicable jurisdiction are factors that detract from or make consent impossible.

Silence or an absence of resistance does not imply consent, and consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not imply consent to engage in sexual activity with another. Even in the context of an ongoing relationship, consent must be sought and freely given for each specific sexual act. Consent may be withdrawn at any time. When consent is withdrawn, sexual activity must immediately stop.

Consent for sexual contact cannot legally be given if an individual is under the age of 18, is incapacitated due to alcohol or other drugs, is unconscious or asleep, or has limited mental capacity. Consent is a clear yes, not the absence of no.

There must always be active consent among involved persons. Consent to one event or action does not imply consent to another. If limits are made clear and consent is not given, pressuring someone into changing their mind is not consent.

- Consent is based on choice.
- Consent is active, not passive. Silence and passivity do not equal consent.
- Consent is possible only when there is equal power.
- Giving in because of fear is not consent.
- Giving in or going along with someone to gain approval or to avoid being hurt is not consent.
- Consent means two (or more) people deciding together to do the same thing, at the same time, in the same way, with each other.

It is the intent of Madison College to provide an institutional environment where all persons may pursue their studies, careers, duties and activities in an atmosphere free from threat of unwelcome and unwanted sexual actions.

INCIDENT REPORTING

Madison College encourages all students, employees, and guests to promptly and accurately report incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Reporting Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking

There is no single way to file a report. Allegations may be reported by any person at any time (including during non-business hours) using the following mechanisms:

- It is preferable to submit online, using the Harassment/Discrimination Report form.
- Report directly to the Title IX Coordinators (listed below).

Title IX Coordinator – Students & Community Members (Guests)

Geraldo VilaCruz, Ph.D.

Associate Vice President/Dean of Students
Dean of Students Office
Truax Campus, Room C1434
Email: gvilacruz@madisoncollege.edu

College resources (listed below) can assist with filing a report:

- Counseling Services
- Dean of Students Office
- Human Resources Department

Mandated Reporters

College employees (including student employees), other than individuals designated as confidential employees (e.g., college counseling staff) are mandated reporters and must report allegations of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation to the Title IX Coordinator, or other designated college official. Additionally, college employees are encouraged to provide those who disclose an allegation of misconduct with the contact information for the college's designated official. Employees observing or receiving reports of a potential violation of the Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy must promptly file a report including all relevant details about the alleged incident. This includes the name of the alleged respondent (if known), the individual who experienced the alleged incident, possible witnesses, as well as relevant facts, including the date, time, and location.

Amnesty for Students

Students who have consumed alcohol when they are not of legal drinking age or who have been using illegal drugs may be hesitant to report an incident. In cases when a student complainant or student witness(es) was under the influence of alcohol or drugs at the time of an alleged incident, the college will not pursue college-based disciplinary actions against the complainant (or against a witness) for a policy violation (e.g., underage drinking, drug use). However, the college reserves the right to require counseling, education, or other preventative measures. The college's commitment to amnesty in these situations does not prevent action by police or other legal authorities against an individual.

Accommodations in the Grievance Process

Madison College will provide reasonable accommodations and support to students, employees, or others with disabilities to ensure equal access to a resolution. A participant in the grievance process may request accommodations related to disabilities or health conditions. Requests will be reviewed in a timely manner. At least five working days is needed to process the request.

Students should contact Disability Resource Services with questions or to request disability-related accommodations. Inquiries can be made by calling Disability Resource Services at 608-246-6716 or emailing drstransition@madisoncollege.edu.

Employees should contact their Human Resources Business Partner with questions or to request disability-related accommodations.

Requests will be reviewed in consultation with the designated college official and the requestor to determine whether accommodations are necessary and appropriate for participation in the resolution process. The designated college official will oversee the implementation of reasonable accommodations.

Response to Allegations

Upon receiving notice, complaint or knowledge of a potential policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator will contact the complainant to gather additional detail. The Title IX Coordinator will share information about supportive measures and discuss the complainant's options and rights regarding the resolution process. This preliminary assessment into an incident will typically be conducted within five (5) working days of receiving notice/complaint/knowledge of alleged misconduct and allows the college to assess immediate health or safety concerns and determine whether the college has jurisdiction over the reported conduct.

Timelines for Resolution

Madison College seeks to resolve all allegations of sex-based harassment within 90 working days. All time frames are guidelines, not rigid requirements. Circumstances may arise that require time frame extensions potentially beyond 90 working days. Circumstances may include, but are not limited to, the complexity of allegations, number of witnesses involved, availability of the parties or witnesses, effect of a concurrent criminal investigation, any intervening school break or vacation, or other unforeseen circumstances or reasons.

In general, the complainant and respondent can expect the process will proceed according to the specified time frames. If the investigation and adjudication exceed the identified time frames, Madison College will notify all parties of the reason for the delay and the expected adjustment in time frames. Best efforts will be made to complete the process in a timely manner by balancing principles of thoroughness and fundamental fairness with promptness.

Madison College will comply with law enforcement agency requests for cooperation and this may delay the college’s fact gathering. The college will communicate with the parties regarding Title IX rights, procedural options, and the implementation of supportive measures to ensure safety and well-being. In cases of delay, Madison College will promptly resume fact gathering as soon as law enforcement has completed its initial investigation.

GRIEVANCE PROCESS

Madison College seeks to ensure a thorough, reliable, and impartial investigation and resolution.

The preponderance of evidence standard is used to resolve cases alleging sex-based harassment; that is, it is more likely than not, that a policy violation has occurred. When a violation is determined, Madison College will take prompt corrective action and impose appropriate sanctions. Upon conclusion of a resolution action, supportive measures may also be applied to remedy the effects of the alleged conduct. The college complies with federal, state and local laws, including the reporting of certain crimes to law enforcement authorities.

Overview of the Process

Table 6 outlines the general actions associated with the resolution of alleged violations of the Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy. Additional explanation is offered in the subsequent sections.

TABLE 6. OVERVIEW OF RESOLUTION ACTIONS
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Notice, a complaint, or knowledge of alleged violation received. • Initial review and preliminary assessment. • Written notice of allegations. • Investigation of alleged harassment, discrimination, or retaliation. • Informal resolution or formal resolution. • Notice of outcome. • Appeal.

Reporting of An Allegation

Anonymous Reporting

Anonymous reports will not be denied (on the basis on anonymity) but may hinder or impact an investigation. Madison College tries to provide supportive measures to complainants, which is made more difficult by an anonymous report. The complainant may request to dismiss the complaint at any time. The college will comply unless there is a compelling threat to health or safety.

False Allegations

Making deliberate false and/or malicious allegations is a serious offense. In addition, parties or witnesses that knowingly provide false evidence, tamper with, or destroy evidence after being directed to preserve it, or deliberately mislead an official investigating a complaint, can be subject to disciplinary action. This does not include allegations made in good faith.

Confidentiality

While Madison College makes every effort to preserve confidentiality of reports that fall under the resolution process and related policy, it cannot guarantee confidentiality in every instance. Madison College will make reasonable efforts to respect the privacy of complainants, respondents, witnesses, and others who have brought forward, participated in, or are otherwise involved in complaints or investigations adjudicated under this resolution process. Once Madison College is aware of an incident, information is only shared with those who have a “need to know” the information to assist with Madison College’s management or resolution of the incident.

Generally, those individuals with a role in the grievance process will be informed about the complaint to preserve the rights and privacy of the involved parties. The college reserves the right to designate which college officials have a legitimate interest in being informed about incidents within the process.

Victims may request that directory information on file with the college be withheld by request. An individual can request that the college withhold directory information by adjusting their Privacy Settings in their myMadisonCollege New Portal under Personal Information. A previous request may also be revoked in this location. Individuals can also email EnrollmentServices@madisoncollege.edu from their Madison College email address for assistance.

Regardless of whether a victim has opted-out of allowing the college to share “directory information,” personally identifiable information about the victim and other necessary parties will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons who have a specific need-to-know (i.e., those who are investigating/adjudicating the report or those involved in providing support services to the parties, including accommodations and protective measures).

By only sharing personally identifiable information with individuals on a need-to-know basis, the institution will maintain as confidential, any accommodations or protective measures provided to the parties to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

The college does not publish the name of crime victims or other identifiable information regarding victims in the Daily Crime Log or in the annual crime statistics that are disclosed in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (The Clery Act). Furthermore, if a Timely Warning Notice is issued on the basis of a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, the name of the victim and other personally identifiable information about the victim will be withheld.

Notwithstanding the forgoing, the college may reveal the identity of any person or the contents of any record if permitted by FERPA, if necessary to carry out the college’s obligations under Title IX, or other applicable laws and implementing regulations including the investigation, adjudication, or appeal under this resolution process or any subsequent judicial proceeding or as otherwise required by law.

Notice of Victim's Rights

Regardless of whether a victim elects to pursue a criminal complaint or whether the offense is alleged to have occurred on or off campus, Madison College will assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and will provide each victim with a written explanation of their rights and options. Such written information will include:

- The procedures victims should follow if a crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking has occurred
- Information about how Madison College will protect the confidentiality of victims and other necessary parties
- A statement that the institution will provide written notification to students and employees about victim services within Madison College and in the community
- A statement regarding Madison College's provisions about options for, available assistance in, and how to request accommodations and protective measures; and
- An explanation of the procedures for institutional disciplinary action

Referral to Law Enforcement

Reports involving the attempted or actual physical or sexual abuse of children (defined as persons under the age 18) will automatically be referred to law enforcement and the appropriate state agency responsible for child protection.

Students, employees and community members may also consider a direct report to the local police department and victims may contact their local forensic nurse examiner.

A criminal investigation and Madison College's resolution process may happen simultaneously.

NOTE: Public awareness events such as "Take Back the Night," the Clothesline Project, candlelight vigils, protests, "survivor speak outs," or other forums in which students or employees disclose incidents of sexual harassment, are not considered a report of sexual harassment, or notice to the college of sexual harassment for purposes of initiating the college's obligation to investigate any particular incident(s). Such events may, however, inform the need for campus-wide education and prevention efforts, and the college may provide information about Title IX and Clery rights at these events.

Initial Review and Preliminary Assessment

Upon receiving notice, a complaint, or knowledge of an allegation of sex-based harassment/alleged policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator, or other designated college official, will conduct an initial review and preliminary assessment.

The preliminary assessment will assess any eminent risk, provide an integrated and coordinated response to reports, and offer supportive measures to the complainant, as needed. The assessment will consider the nature of the report; the safety of the parties and of the campus community; and the complainant's expressed preference for resolution.

Madison College reserves the right to take measures it deems necessary in response to an allegation of sex-based harassment to protect party rights, personal safety and the safety and security of the college community. The Title IX Coordinator, Civil Rights Response Team, or designee may consult with professional resources such as the Director of Public Safety Services and Risk Management, the Behavioral Intervention Team, or other(s) in making this assessment.

Notice of Allegations

When the college receives notice, a complaint, or knowledge of an alleged policy violation that may reasonably constitute a violation of the Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy, and the complainant wishes to pursue a resolution action, the designated college official will provide the parties with written notice.

Such notice will be provided in writing and delivered to the Madison College email address(es) of the parties. Once sent, notice will be presumed to have been delivered. At the time that written notice is issued, the Title IX Coordinator or other designated college official will ensure the respondent is offered supportive measures, as needed.

If a student is under age 18, the written notice will also be sent to the student's parent(s) or guardian(s). For college employee groups, the direct supervisor for the employee may be included in this notice.

Retaliation

Retaliating against a person who has in good faith made a report or participated in an investigation of a complaint of harassment or discrimination is strictly prohibited. Retaliation includes but is not limited to:

- Ostracizing the person
- Pressuring the person to drop
- Not supporting the complaint or providing false or misleading information
- Engaging in conduct that may reasonably be perceived to affect adversely that person's educational, living, or work environment
- Threatening, intimidating, or coercing the person
- Otherwise discriminating against any person for exercising their rights or responsibilities under college policy.

Retaliation may be determined even if the complaint is ultimately found to have no merit.

Retaliation is a serious violation of Madison College's Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy. Acts of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately to the Title IX Coordinator or other designated college official and will be promptly investigated. Madison College is prepared to take appropriate steps to protect individuals who fear that they may be or have been subjected to retaliation.

Investigation Into Reports of Harassment, Discrimination or Retaliation

The investigation provides a thorough, impartial, and reliable gathering of the facts, and all individuals will be treated with appropriate sensitivity and respect. The burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding responsibility rests on the college, and not the parties. The investigation will be conducted by individuals assigned by the designated college official to address:

- An incident or incidents, and/or
- A pattern of alleged misconduct, and/or
- A culture/climate issue based on the nature of the complaint.

The investigation is conducted in a manner that treats parties equitably and is aligned with Title IX or other applicable requirements.

Unless indicated otherwise, the designated college official will assign two investigators to investigate the complaint. The investigators' names will be provided in the written notice of allegations.

NOTE: The college reserves the right to assign an external third-party investigator, as circumstances require (e.g., when a substantial conflict of interest is alleged by the complainant, respondent, or investigator or where special expertise is needed). In circumstances that require the use of an external third-party investigator, the specific resolution timelines will be suspended pending that appointment.

If, during an investigation, Madison College decides to investigate other allegations about the complainant or respondent that are not included in the written notice of allegations, the designated college official will provide notice of the additional allegations to the parties whose identities are known.

Evidentiary Consideration in the Investigation

The investigator(s) will only consider evidence that is deemed relevant and not otherwise impermissible. Relevant evidence is that which may aid in determining whether the allegation occurred, or whether the behavior constitutes a violation of Policy.

The parties must provide all evidence to the investigator(s) prior to completing the Final Investigation Report. Evidence offered after that time will be evaluated by the decision maker for relevance. If deemed relevant and not impermissible, the parties and decision maker must agree to admit it into the record. If the evidence is deemed not relevant or impermissible, the decision maker may proceed with the formal resolution process absent the new evidence.

Informal Resolution of Allegations

Madison College recognizes that informal resolution processes present the same potential benefits for resolving allegations of sexual harassment as for other disputes. Therefore, Madison College will pursue informal resolution actions for the following circumstances:

- When the parties agree to resolve the matter through an alternative resolution mechanism
- When the respondent accepts responsibility for violating policy, and desires to accept a sanction and end the resolution process
- When the matter can be resolved informally through supportive measures to remedy the situation

Informal resolution does not need to be attempted for a formal resolution to be pursued. Any party participating in an informal resolution can stop the process to begin or resume a formal resolution.

Once written assent is provided by the parties, the complaint will be considered resolved at which time it can no longer be referred to formal resolution and it is NOT subject to an appeal.

Outcome of Informal Resolution

If the parties agree to an informal resolution, the designated college official will document it in a written agreement for the parties to sign. The written agreement will be presented to the parties for signature. The informal resolution is NOT subject to appeal once all parties indicate their written assent to all agreed upon resolution terms.

Formal Resolution of Allegations

Madison College formally resolves complaints of discrimination on the basis of protected characteristics through an Administrative Review process, except for instances of alleged sex-based harassment involving student complainants or student respondents. In instances of alleged sex-based harassment involving student complainants or student respondents, Madison College uses a Formal Hearing process to meet its obligations per 34 CFR Part 106.46(f).

The applicable Formal Resolution process will be enacted when Informal Resolution is either not elected or is unsuccessful.

Administrative Review

The Administrative Review process consists of a hand-off of the final investigation report and all relevant evidence to the college's Civil Rights Response Team. The Civil Rights Response Team serves as the decision maker for the Administrative Review process to make a finding and determine sanctions (if applicable). Parties are notified that the case is referred to the Civil Rights Response Team when they receive the final investigation report.

The Administrative Review process typically takes approximately ten (10) working days to complete, beginning with the decision maker's receipt of the final investigation report. The parties will be updated regularly on the timing and any significant deviation from this typical timeline.

Formal Hearing Process

The Formal Hearing process consists of a hand-off of the final investigation report and all relevant evidence to a hearing officer with the Wisconsin Division of Hearings and Appeals (DHA). The hearing officer serves as the decision maker for the Formal Hearing process to make a finding and determine sanctions (if applicable). Parties are notified that the case is referred to DHA when they receive the final investigation report.

The DHA is a quasi-judicial, independent entity created to conduct high quality, impartial and independent hearings. A hearing officer who is an administrative law judge with DHA will be assigned to conduct the formal hearing. The hearing officer will be the decision maker for the hearing and will not have had any previous involvement with the investigation.

The Formal Hearing process allows for the questioning of parties and witnesses to aid in evaluating allegations and assess credibility for sex-based harassment complaints involving student complainants or student respondents.

Deliberation, Decision-Making, and Standard of Proof

A written determination regarding responsibility is issued at the conclusion of the formal resolution process (i.e., Administrative Review or Formal Hearing). The determination of responsibility is based on the preponderance of evidence standard that is, it is more likely than not, that a policy violation has occurred.

Outcome of Formal Resolution

The decision maker will prepare and provide a written outcome letter that will be shared with the parties detailing all findings and determinations, the rationale(s) explaining the decision(s), the evidence used in support of the determination(s), the evidence disregarded, any credibility assessments, and any sanction(s) and rationales explaining the sanction(s).

This written notice of outcome is generally provided to the parties within seven (7) working days from the conclusion of the formal resolution process (i.e., Administrative Review or Formal Hearing).

The designated college official will notify the parties of any extension.

Notice of Outcome

Madison College will provide written notice regarding the resolution process outcome whether the resolution is a result of a dismissal, informal resolution, administrative review decision, or a hearing determination decision. Written notice of outcome will be provided to involved parties simultaneously.

If a student is under the age 18, the notice will also be sent to the student's parent(s) or guardian(s). The decision and related documentation are maintained, and these records will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law.

Dismissal of the Formal Complaint

Instances in which a complaint is dismissed will result in an outcome notification. The outcome notification will provide the rationale for dismissal. The dismissal decision can be appealed per the bases and guidelines outlined in the Appeals section (outlined later in this report).

Statement of Ongoing Obligations: Dismissal of a complaint because it does not qualify as harassment or discrimination under the college's Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy does not limit Madison College's authority to continue to address the complaint with an appropriate process and remedies. In instances that the complaint is referred to another college process, a separate notification will be provided to involved parties.

Informal Resolution Action

Instances in which the formal complaint is resolved using an informal or resolution process will result in an outcome notification. The outcome notification will outline the circumstances leading to the informal resolution, the agreed upon sanctions/actions and remedies, and statement that parties agreed to the identified resolution. Once an outcome is agreed upon by the parties, the complaint will be considered resolved at which point the process is concluded and cannot be referred to formal investigation; the result of an informal resolution is NOT subject to an appeal once written assent is provided by the parties.

Hearing Determination Decision

The determination of responsibility based on an investigation and formal hearing will result in an outcome notification. The written determination will include:

- Identification of the allegations potentially constituting sexual harassment
- A description of the procedural steps taken by the college
- Findings of fact supporting the determination
- A statement of determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary sanctions the college imposes on the respondent, and whether remedies will be provided by the college to the complainant
- The college's procedures and permissible bases for an appeal

The determination regarding responsibility becomes final on the date that an appeal would no longer be considered timely (five working days after receiving determination decision); unless an appeal is filed in which case, the determination becomes final with the written determination of the result. Any party has a right to appeal the determination decision based on the bases and guidelines outlined in the Appeals section.

Administrative Review Determination Decision

The determination of responsibility based on a review of the administrative review by the Civil Rights Response Team will result in an outcome notification. The written determination will include:

- Identification of the allegations constituting harassment or discrimination
- A description of the procedural steps taken by the college
- Findings of fact supporting the determination
- A statement of determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary sanctions the college imposes on the respondent, and whether remedies will be provided by the college to the complainant; and
- The college's procedures and permissible bases for an appeal

The determination regarding responsibility becomes final on the date that an appeal would no longer be considered timely (five working days after receiving determination decision); unless an appeal is filed in which case, the determination becomes final with the written determination of the result of the appeal. Any party has a right to appeal the determination decision based on the bases and guidelines outlined in the next section.

Appeals

Any party has the right to file an appeal from the college's dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein¹, and from a determination regarding responsibility based only on the following reasons:

- (a) Significant procedural errors, and/or
- (b) The appearance of substantive new evidence not available at the time of the original decision, and/or
- (c) The designated college official, investigator, or decision maker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that would change the outcome.
- (d) The dismissal was erroneously granted or denied.

¹ The dismissal decision is appealable by any party. The decision NOT to dismiss is also appealable by any party claiming that a dismissal is warranted.

NOTE: Deliberate omission of information by the appealing party in the original investigation is not grounds for appeal.

Appeals for other reasons are NOT permitted.

NOTE: Employees have the right to appeal disciplinary action resulting from the Grievance Process that involves employee termination, employee discipline or workplace safety in accordance with college grievance procedures.

RIGHTS OF THE PARTIES

The following rights are provided to both the victim/complainant and the accused/respondent:

- The right to an equitable investigation and resolution of all credible allegations of prohibited harassment or discrimination made in good faith to Madison College officials.
- The right to timely written notice of all alleged violations, including the identity of the parties involved (if known), the precise misconduct being alleged, the date and location of the alleged misconduct (if known), the implicated policies and procedures, and possible sanctions.
- The right to timely written notice of any material adjustments to the allegations (e.g., additional incidents or allegations, additional complainants, unsubstantiated allegations) and any attendant adjustments needed to clarify potentially implicated policy violations.
- The right to be informed in advance of any public release of information regarding the allegation(s) or underlying incident(s), whenever possible.
- The right to have any personally identifiable information held in confidence unless consent to disclose is provided, except to the extent permitted by law.
- The right to be treated with respect by Madison College officials.
- The right to have Madison College policies and procedures followed without material deviation.
- The right to pursue informal resolution of any reported misconduct involving violence, including sexual violence as permitted, without feeling pressured.
- The right to report harassment or discrimination (including sexual harassment) to both on-campus and off-campus authorities without interference from Madison College officials.
- The right to be informed, without pressure, by Madison College officials of options to notify proper law enforcement authorities and the option(s) to be assisted by Madison College Public Safety Services in notifying such authorities if the party so chooses.
- The right to have allegations of violations of this policy responded to promptly and with sensitivity by Madison College officials.
- The right to be informed of available interim actions and supportive measures, such as counseling; advocacy; health care; legal, student financial aid, visa, and immigration assistance; or other services, both on campus and in the community.
- The right to a Madison College-implemented no-contact order [or a no-trespass order against a non-affiliated third party] when a person has engaged in or threatens to engage in stalking, threatening, harassing, or other improper conduct that presents a danger to the welfare of the party or others.

- The right to be informed of available assistance in changing academic, living, and/or working situations after an alleged incident of discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation, if such changes are reasonably available. No formal report, or investigation, either campus or criminal, needs to occur before this option is available. Such actions may include, but are not limited to:
 - Changing an employee's work environment (e.g., reporting structure, office/workspace relocation)
 - Transportation accommodations
 - Visa/immigration assistance
 - Exam, paper, and/or assignment rescheduling or adjustment
 - Receiving an incomplete in, or a withdrawal from, a class (may be retroactive)
 - Transferring class sections
 - Temporary withdrawal/leave of absence (may be retroactive)
 - Campus safety escorts
 - Alternative course completion options
- The right to have Madison College maintain such actions for as long as necessary and for supportive measures to remain confidential, provided confidentiality does not impair Madison College's ability to provide the supportive measures.
- The right to receive sufficiently advanced, written notice of any meeting or interview involving the other party, when possible.
- The right to ask the Investigator(s) and Decision-maker(s) to identify and question relevant witnesses, including expert witnesses.
- The right to provide the Investigator(s)/Decision-maker(s) with a list of questions that, if deemed relevant by the Investigator(s)/Chair, may be asked of any party or witness.
- The right to have irrelevant prior sexual history or character withheld as evidence unless it pertains to relations with the other party.
- The right to know the relevant and directly related evidence obtained and to respond to that evidence.
- The right to have a fair opportunity to provide the investigator (s) with their account of the alleged misconduct and have that account be on the record.
- The right to receive a copy of the investigation report, including all factual, policy, and/or credibility analyses performed, and all relevant and directly related evidence available and used to produce the investigation report, subject to the confidentiality limitations imposed by state and federal law, prior to the hearing, and the right to have at least ten (10) working days to review the report prior to the hearing.
- The right to respond to the investigation report, including comments providing any additional relevant evidence after the opportunity to review the investigation report, and to have that response on the record.
- The right to be informed of the names of all witnesses whose information will be used to make a finding, in advance of that finding, when relevant.
- The right to regular updates on the status of the investigation and/or resolution.
- The right to have reports of alleged Policy violations addressed by Investigators, Title IX Coordinators, and Decision-maker(s) who have received at least eight hours of relevant annual training.
- The right to preservation of privacy, to the extent possible and permitted by law.
- The right to meetings, interviews, and/or hearings that are closed to the public.
- The right to petition that any Madison College representative in the process be recused on the basis of disqualifying bias and/or conflict of interest.

- The right to have an advisor of their choice to accompany and assist the party in all meetings and/or interviews associated with the resolution process.
- The right to have Madison College compel the participation of faculty and staff witnesses.
- The right to the use of the preponderance of the evidence to make a finding after an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence.
- The right to be present, including presence via remote technology, during all testimony given and evidence presented during any formal grievance hearing for an allegation of sexual harassment.
- The right to have an impact statement considered by the decision-maker(s) for an allegation of sexual harassment following a determination of responsibility, but prior to sanctioning.
- The right to be promptly informed in a written Notice of Outcome letter of the finding(s) and sanction(s) of the resolution process and a detailed rationale therefor (including an explanation of how credibility was assessed), delivered simultaneously (without undue delay) to the parties.
- The right to be informed in writing of when a decision by Madison College is considered final and any changes to the sanction(s) that occur before the decision is finalized.
- The right to be informed of the opportunity to appeal the finding(s) and sanction(s) of the resolution process, and the procedures for doing so in accordance with the standards for appeal established by Madison College.
- The right to a fundamentally fair resolution as defined by the college's grievance processes.

DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

The specific sanction(s) will depend on the type of conduct, severity, and other relevant factors related to the findings and decision. However, sanctions may include, but are not limited to warnings, education, suspension, expulsion, separation, and the prohibition from campus property or activities. The Title IX Coordinator or designated college official is responsible for effective implementation of any sanctions or remedies.

The sanctioning and disciplinary outcomes of individuals found responsible for a violation of Madison College policies including relevant Codes of Conduct is a complex task that considers several factors. Such factors may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The need to remedy the effects of the respondent's behavior on the complainant and the community and to ensure future safety
- Protecting the safety of the community
- Holding the respondent accountable for the respondent's actions.

To meet these multiple goals, an appropriate mix of sanctions may be determined for each case.

Possible Student Sanctions

- College suspension
- College expulsion
- Revocation of admission
- Conduct probation
- Written warning
- Loss of privileges
- Restitution
- No contact directive
- Eligibility restriction
- Student groups and organizations sanctions

Possible Employee Sanctions

Sanctions for employees follow a progressive discipline process. The following sanctions may apply; however, any of the steps may be skipped depending on the severity of the action(s) of the respondent.

- Training
- Verbal warning
- Written letter of reprimand
- Paid suspension
- Unpaid suspension
- No contact directive
- Restrictions on professional development funds
- Termination of employment

AWARENESS AND PREVENTION PROGRAMS: SEXUAL ASSAULT AND RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE

Madison College provides prevention programming focused on helping students and employees address the issues of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. Madison College engages in comprehensive, intentional, and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies, and campaigns intended to end domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking that:

- A. Are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research, or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome; and
- B. Consider environmental risk and protective factors as they occur on the individual, relationship, institutional, community and societal levels.

Programs to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking include:

- Primary prevention and awareness programs directed at incoming students and new employees
- Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns directed at students and employees.

Programming is delivered in a variety of methods and means, including active and passive mechanisms to inform individuals regarding:

- A. The college prohibits the crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking (as defined by the The Clery Act);
- B. The definitions of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking according to any applicable jurisdictional definitions of these terms;
- C. The behavior and actions which constitute consent, in reference to sexual activity, in the State of Wisconsin;
- D. The college's definition of consent AND the purposes for which that definition is used.
- E. A description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention. Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene;

F. Information on risk reduction. Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

G. Information regarding:

1. The procedures victims should follow if a crime of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking occurs (as described in "Procedures Victims Should Follow if a Crime of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking Occurs" elsewhere in this document)
2. How the institution will protect the confidentiality of victims and other necessary parties (as described in "Assistance for Victims: Rights and Options" elsewhere in this document);
3. Existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community (as described in "Assistance for Victims: Rights and Options" elsewhere in this document);
4. Options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, living, transportation, and working situations or protective measures (as described in "Assistance for Victims: Rights and Options" elsewhere in this document); and
5. The procedures for institutional disciplinary action in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking (as described in "Adjudication of Violations" elsewhere in this document).

H. Programs in the form of presentations, workshops, training, and outreach and awareness events are offered through a collaborative effort of multiple college departments including the Dean of Students Office, Counseling Services, Student Life, Human Resources and Public Safety Services.

Awareness programs take place throughout the year at student and employee orientations, department meetings, employee in-service training sessions and student advisory board meetings. Students will experience a wide variety of methods of learning about these essential topics, such as in-person presentations during WolfPack Welcome (new student orientation); Student Senate and other official club meetings; literature detailing the important points listed here via entries in the Student Planner (handbook); open letters in different forms of media; and annual refresher education and training sessions for returning students, delivered via interactive online learning mechanisms.

Employees will receive training using similar methods - in-person presentations during new employee orientation and term start sessions; literature posted in the online newsletter or contained within the Employee Handbook; annual open letters in various forms of media; and annual refresher training using an interactive online delivery system.

The Madison College Student Code of Conduct and Employee Handbook Conduct Guidelines prohibit all forms of sexual violence, coercion or harassment against individuals, whether perpetrated by a stranger or acquaintance, whether occurring on or off campus, and whether directed against a member of the Madison College community or someone outside that community.

Primary Prevention and Awareness Programs

Madison College provides primary prevention and awareness programs to all incoming students and new employees that involve dissemination of educational materials, providing workshops or presentations, hosting events, and promoting completion of online training related to sexual assault.

The following descriptions highlight some of the primary prevention and awareness programs or services offered to all incoming students:

WolfPack Welcome (New Student Orientation)

Information about sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and available victim resources is shared with new students during orientation known as WolfPack Welcome. Information about Student Rights and Responsibilities and other college policies is reviewed and support services available through the Dean of Students Office are described. WolfPack Welcome is coordinated by Student Life each fall and spring semester.

Madison College Student Planner

All students attending WolfPack Welcome receive a student planner. Information about Student Rights and Responsibilities and support services available through the Dean of Students Office are described.

Welcome Letter

All new students receive an email from the Executive Vice President of Student Affairs & Institutional Effectiveness to “Welcome” them to the Madison College Community. The letter is sent to newly enrolled students each fall and spring semesters and highlights important topics including information about the college’s Title IX: Take A Stand Against Sexual Violence training. All enrolled students are encouraged to complete the training during the first six weeks of the fall or spring semester. Students receive the request to complete the training on an annual basis.

Student Title IX Training: Take a Stand Against Sexual Violence

Training is available to students that describes the rights afforded to students and employees under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and details Madison College’s efforts to prevent sexual harassment on campus. Students are assigned to complete training on an annual basis. The training provides an overview of the college’s obligations under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Madison College’s Policy and Grievance Process for responding to Title IX / Sexual Harassment allegations, reporting mechanisms, and victim resources and remedies.

The specific primary prevention and awareness programs offered to all incoming students in the 2022-2023 academic year are outlined in Table 7, Primary Prevention and Awareness Programs (Incoming Students).

TABLE 7. PRIMARY PREVENTION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMS (INCOMING STUDENTS)

WolfPack Welcome (New Student Orientation)	Fall 2022/Spring 2023	Online	Sexual Assault

The primary prevention and awareness programming offered to all new employees includes New Employee Orientation and assignment in an online training, Fostering A Discrimination-free Workplace.

New Employee Orientation

Information about sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and available victim resources is shared with new employees during orientation known as New Employee Orientation. New employees learn of the rights afforded to students and employees under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as well as Madison College's efforts to prevent sexual harassment on campus. Employees are informed of reporting responsibilities as well as how to access resources and support whether for themselves or for students. New Employee Orientation is coordinated by Human Resources and is offered monthly. During orientation, new employees are directed to complete the college's Fostering a Discrimination-Free Workplace training.

Fostering A Discrimination-Free Workplace Training

Madison College strives to provide a safe environment that is free of harassment. Only in a healthy environment can employees thrive and serve our students authentically and passionately. This training provides an overview of the policies and procedures that are in place to support a workplace free of harassment and discrimination (including sexual harassment). It additionally covers information about federal and state laws that provide rights to all members of the Madison College community as well as resources for employees to be able to support their students. Completion of the training is requested of all new employees.

The specific primary prevention and awareness programs offered to all new employees in the 2022-2023 academic year are outlined in Table 8. Primary Prevention and Awareness Programs (New Employees).

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaigns

The college provides an annual educational campaign for all students and employees designed to provide ongoing education and programming around issues of sexual violence - including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Campaign strategies employed include face-to-face presentations, online training programs, printed materials, tabling displays, social media/electronic postings and related lectures.

Ongoing prevention and awareness program or services offered to students and employees include:

WolfPack Connect

WolfPack Connect is an application promoted by Madison College’s Center for Student Life to increase connection among students and provide access to student clubs, groups, and involvement opportunities. The Dean of Students Office maintains information on WolfPack Connect about reporting a concern, complainant, or allegation of harassment/discrimination (including sexual harassment).

Student Title IX Training: Take a Stand Against Sexual Violence

Training is available to students that describes the rights afforded to students and employees under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and details Madison College's efforts to prevent sexual harassment on campus. Students are assigned to complete training on an annual basis. The training provides an overview of the college’s obligations under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Madison College’s Policy and Grievance Process for responding to Title IX/Sexual Harassment allegations, reporting mechanisms, and victim resources and remedies.

Fostering A Discrimination-Free Workplace

Madison College strives to provide a safe environment that is free of harassment. Only in a healthy environment can employees thrive and serve our students authentically and passionately. This training provides an overview of the policies and procedures that are in place to support a workplace free of harassment and discrimination (including sexual harassment). It additionally covers information about federal and state laws that provide rights to all members of the Madison College community as well as resources for employees to be able to support their students. Completion of the training is requested of all new employees. Additionally, all Madison

College employees are encouraged to complete the training on an annual basis.

Bystander Intervention Training

Madison College offers bystander intervention and related training for individuals and groups interested in learning how they can stop sexual violence from happening. Trainings are promoted each semester and are coordinated through Human Resources and the Dean of Students Office. Additional offerings can be scheduled by contacting the Dean of Students Office by telephone at 608-243-4555 or by email at deanofstudents@madisoncollege.edu.

Domestic Violence / Intimate Partner Violence 101

Workshop aimed to inform participants about Domestic Violence / Intimate Partner Violence and the many areas it exists, how to empower survivors, and explores available services of local victim advocacy organizations.

Get Your “Color” On

Madison College promotes “color” campaigns to bring awareness to Campus Safety Awareness Month (September), Domestic Violence Awareness Month (October), and Sexual Assault Awareness Month (April) among other awareness months. The college community is encouraged to show support of those impacted by sexual assault and/or domestic violence by going “orange”, “teal”, or “purple”. etc. The college community is encouraged to:

- Change their social media profile picture or email signature to a “color” ribbon icon.
- Change their teleconferencing background image to a “color” image during the month.
- Help turn Madison College the color of the awareness month by sharing a selfie wearing the “color.”
- Wearing the identified “color” on specific days of the month.

Social Media/Electronic Postings

Throughout the academic year, Madison College uses social media and other electronic means (e.g., college website, college Facebook page, student news feed, employee newsletter, etc.) to share information, tips, and resources to supporting a healthy, safe, and inclusive college, including a focus on the topics of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

Other Available Programming

Madison College is committed to maintaining an environment in which students and employees can work and learn together in an atmosphere free of all forms of harassment and discrimination. Training is available to students and employees as part of this commitment. Ongoing prevention and awareness training is conducted throughout the year. Programming can be tailored to fit specific needs of a department, student group, or other need by request. Information is available by contacting the Dean of Students Office at deanofstudents@madisoncollege.edu or Civil Rights & Compliance at civilrightsandcompliance@madisoncollege.edu. Additional information is also available online at madisoncollege.edu/workshops-and-training.

Prevention and Risk Reduction

Sexual violence is a problem at colleges and universities across the country, including Madison College. Professionals college-wide are working collaboratively to ensure the campus community is aware of how sexual violence impacts our community. When we talk about what you can do to stop sexual violence, we often use the word prevention. While we would all like to prevent sexual violence, it is helpful to understand the difference between prevention and risk reduction.

- Prevention is stopping the behavior.
- Risk reduction is actively taking steps to reduce the likelihood a behavior will happen.

Risk Reduction

With no intent to victim blame and recognizing that only abusers are responsible for their abuse, the following are some strategies to reduce one's risk of sexual assault or harassment (taken from Rape, Abuse, & Incest National Network, rainn.org)

- Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way to get out of a bad situation.
- Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.
- Walk with purpose. Even if you don't know where you are going, act like you do.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it probably isn't the best place to be.
- Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.
- Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cab money.
- Don't allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don't trust or someone you don't know.
- Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
- When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way out of a bad situation.
- Trust your instincts. If you feel unsafe in any situation, go with your gut. If you see something suspicious, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.).
- Don't leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you've left your drink alone, just get a new one.
- Don't accept drinks from people you don't know or trust. If you choose to accept a drink, go with the person to the bar to order it, watch it being poured, and carry it yourself. At parties, don't drink from the punch bowls or other large, common open containers.
- Watch out for your friends, and vice versa. If a friend seems out of it, is way too intoxicated for the amount of alcohol they've had, or is acting out of character, get him or her to a safe place immediately.
- If you suspect you or a friend has been drugged, contact law enforcement immediately (local authorities can be reached by calling 911 in most areas of the U.S.). Be explicit with doctors so they can give you the correct tests (you will need a urine test and possibly others).

- If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation here are some things that you can try:
 - Remember that being in this situation is not your fault. You did not do anything wrong, it is the person who is making you uncomfortable that is to blame.
 - Be true to yourself. Don't feel obligated to do anything you don't want to do. "I don't want to" is always a good enough reason. Do what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.
 - Have a code word with your friends or family so that if you don't feel comfortable you can call them and communicate your discomfort without the person you are with knowing. Your friends or family can then come to get you or make up an excuse for you to leave.
 - Lie. If you don't want to hurt the person's feelings it is better to lie and make up a reason to leave than to stay and be uncomfortable, scared, or worse. Some excuses you could use are: needing to take care of a friend or family member, not feeling well, having somewhere else that you need to be, etc.
 - Try to think of an escape route. How would you try to get out of the room? Where are the doors? Windows? Are there people around who might be able to help you? Is there an emergency phone nearby?
 - If you and/or the other person have been drinking, you can say that you would rather wait until you both have your full judgment before doing anything you may regret later.

Bystander Intervention

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are "individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it."

Madison College offers bystander intervention and related training for individuals and groups interested in learning how they can stop sexual violence from happening. Trainings are promoted each semester and are coordinated through the Dean of Students Office. Additional offerings can be scheduled by contacting the Dean of Students Office by telephone at 608-243-4555 or by email at deanofstudents@madisoncollege.edu.

Madison College wants to promote a culture of community accountability where bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. Oftentimes, individuals may not know what to do even if they want to help. Below is a list of some ways to be an active bystander.

- Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
- Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
- Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.
- Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
- Refer people to on or off campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling, or with legal assistance.

Preventing sexual violence is only accomplished by teaching potential perpetrators not to commit the crime. However, it is important to teach potential victims risk reduction strategies to lower the likelihood that they will become targets of the crime.

PROCEDURES VICTIMS SHOULD FOLLOW IF A CRIME OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT OR STALKING OCCURS

After an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, or sexual assault, the victim should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible. In Wisconsin, evidence may be collected even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement.

Table 11, Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner (SAFE) Locations, lists locations within the Madison College district where SAFE exams are available at no cost to eligible victims. A complete and current listing of SAFE programs in Wisconsin statewide can be found online at sane.doj.wi.gov/locations. More general information regarding the SAFE program is provided on the Wisconsin Coalition Against Sexual Assault (WCASA)'s website at wcasa.org.

It is important that a victim of sexual assault not bathe, douche, smoke, change clothing or clean the bed/linen/area where they were assaulted if the offense occurred within the past 96 hours. This allows for the preservation of evidence. The evidence may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred/or is occurring or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted infections.

TABLE 11. SEXUAL ASSAULT FORENSIC EXAMINER LOCATIONS

Victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications, and keeping pictures, logs or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to college adjudicators/investigators or police.

As time passes, evidence may dissipate or become lost or unavailable, thereby making investigation, possible prosecution, disciplinary proceedings, or obtaining protection from abuse orders related to the incident more difficult. If a victim chooses not to make a complaint regarding an incident, they nevertheless should consider speaking with Madison College Public Safety Services or other law enforcement to preserve evidence if the victim decides to report the incident to law enforcement or the college at a later date to assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred or that may be helpful in obtaining a protection order.

Involvement of Law Enforcement and Campus Authorities

Although Madison College strongly encourages all members of its community to report crimes to law enforcement (including Public Safety Services), it is the victim's choice whether to make such a report. Furthermore, victims have the right to decline to notify law enforcement. However, Madison College Public Safety Services will assist any victim with notifying law enforcement if the victim so desires.

Reports involving the attempted or actual physical or sexual abuse of children (defined as persons under the age of 18) will automatically be referred to law enforcement and the appropriate state agency responsible for the protection of children.

Filing a Police Report

A person has the right to file a report with local law enforcement at any time. Filing a report with local law enforcement can be done by reporting in person at the agency headquarters, calling 911 in emergency situations, calling the non-emergency phone number, or filing a self-report online where applicable. Public Safety Services regularly discusses this option with the victim of a crime and will assist them with the process if requested.

Pertinent information related to the incident, involved parties, and possible witnesses will be collected. The Police Department will provide guidance regarding next steps and options.

Table 12, Local Law Enforcement Agencies, provides contact information for the police departments that serve the various communities in which Madison College campuses are located as well as resources for filing a police report:

When a Crime of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking is Reported

Madison College has procedures in place that serve to be sensitive to victims who report domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, including informing individuals about their right to file criminal charges as well as the availability of counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance and other services on and/or off campus as well as additional remedies to prevent contact between a complainant and an accused party, such as academic, protective orders, transportation and working accommodations, if reasonably available. Madison College will make such accommodations, if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to Public Safety Services or local law enforcement.

Students and community members (guests) should contact Dr. Geraldo VilaCruz, Associate Vice President/Dean of Students, at (608) 246-6442 or gvilacruz@madisoncollege.edu

Employees, vendors and third parties should contact Lisa Muchka, Compliance Director, at (608) 246-5221 or muchka@madisoncollege.edu.

Table 13, Procedures Followed When an Incident Is Reported, outlines the actions that will be taken when an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking is reported to Madison College.

Assistance for Victims - Rights & Options

Regardless of whether a victim elects to pursue a criminal complaint or whether the offense is alleged to have occurred on or off campus, Madison College will assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking and will provide each victim with a written explanation of their rights and options. Such written information will include:

- The procedures victims should follow if a crime of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking has occurred
- Information about how Madison College will protect the confidentiality of victims and other necessary parties
- A statement that institution will provide written notification to students and employees about victim services within Madison College and in the community
- A statement regarding Madison College's provisions about options for, available assistance in, and how to request accommodations and protective measures; and
- An explanation of the procedures for institutional disciplinary action

Rights of Students and Employees

Students and employees can anticipate that:

- Complainants and respondents will be treated with dignity and respect and in a non-judgmental manner. Reports will be addressed as promptly and completely as feasible.
- All students and employees are expected to promptly report all violations of this policy. All reports of sexual misconduct will be treated seriously regardless of the nature of the incident and the identity of the students involved.
- Campus and community organizations and services that can assist students and employees will be identified.
- Complainants and respondents will be afforded the opportunity to request immediate transfer of classes, or other steps to prevent unnecessary or unwanted contact or proximity to either party when reasonably available.
- All students and employees have the right to an environment free from sexual or physical intimidation, or any continuing disruptive behavior that would prevent a reasonable person from attaining their educational or workplace goals. Disruptive behavior of this nature should be reported to appropriate college staff so it can be addressed.
- Students and employees (both complainants and respondents) will have the opportunity to receive confidential support from a Madison College counselor or through the college's Employee Assistance Program prior to and during the college conduct proceedings or investigations.
- Students and employees are entitled to know all evidence and testimony being utilized in decision making.
- The sexual history of the complainant is not relevant to the truth of the allegation; therefore, information regarding the complainant's sexual history other than the relationship between the complainant and the respondent will not be considered in conduct hearings or investigations.
- Complainants and respondents will be notified simultaneously in writing of the outcome of related college investigations or conduct proceedings, including any initial, interim and final decisions of any disciplinary proceeding. The complainant and the respondent must respect the privacy of all involved. Both the complainant and respondent will be informed of their respective right to appeal the college decision.
- Madison College will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim.
- Requests for appeals must be submitted in writing within five business days from the date of the notification letter is provided. Failure to appeal within the allotted time will render the original decision final and conclusive. The imposition of sanctions will normally be deferred while appeal proceedings are in progress, at the discretion of the appeal officer. Where an appeal is permitted under the applicable policy, the complainant and respondent will be notified simultaneously in writing, of the procedures for the respondent and the complainant to appeal the result of the institutional disciplinary proceeding. When an appeal is filed, the complainant and respondent will be notified simultaneously in writing of any change to the result prior to the time that it becomes final as well as of the result.

Additionally, Madison College is committed to ensuring that victims are afforded the following:

- The right to privacy and confidentiality to the extent possible as provided by law. In general, campus and community offices must have a release of information form signed by the student to share information among one another or with any third party, including parents.
- The right to know that any disclosure of a sexual assault made to a college employee can result in a report as an annual crime statistic (with victim's name withheld).
- The right to a victim advocate of their choosing. (For additional information and resources about victim advocacy, contact the RCC: Sexual Violence Resource Center: 608-251-7273.)
- The right to access STI (sexually transmitted infections) testing and treatment, emergency contraception and pregnancy testing.
- The right to be informed of and have access to medical, mental health, crisis response, legal, forensic, campus disciplinary and/or victim advocacy services.
- Law enforcement officers are not required to issue a minor-in-possession violation to underage victims who were drinking alcohol on the occasion of the assault.

In a campus disciplinary hearing, victims have a variety of options for how they offer their testimony, including video-conference, telephone or with room partition.

Resources for Victim Advocacy During the Reporting Process

The complainant will be informed of the various support services available through the college, including counseling and medical assistance. In instances of non-consensual intercourse or contact (e.g., sexual assault, rape), a RCC: Sexual Violence Resource Center representative may be called. The RCC provides free support and information about medical options and procedures, including evidence collection, and assistance with reporting and referrals. The complainant can choose to use or refuse RCC services.

All complaints are taken seriously and a person making a good faith complaint of sexual misconduct, including third parties, will not suffer retaliation or be subject to action by the college. For example, a student bringing forth a good faith complaint of sexual misconduct where alcohol is involved will not be charged with an alcohol violation. Complaints of sexual misconduct will be treated in confidence to the extent feasible, given the need to conduct a thorough investigation and take corrective action, in compliance with state statutes.

Investigations and hearings will be in accord with college grievance processes and applicable student or employee conduct procedures. Investigations in which the respondent is an employee will be in accord with the procedures set forth in college grievance processes and the Employee Handbook. Not all forms of sexual misconduct will be deemed to be equally serious offenses, and the college reserves the right to impose differing sanctions, ranging from written warning to suspension or expulsion, depending on the severity of the offense. The college will consider the concerns and rights of both the complainant and the respondent.

Responsibilities for Orders of Protection or Similar Lawful Orders Issued by a Criminal, Civil, or Tribal Court or by Madison College

Madison College complies with Wisconsin law in recognizing orders of protection, i.e. temporary restraining orders and permanent injunctions by providing escorts from Public Safety Officers; arranging special parking accommodations; changing class times/classroom locations; or allowing a student to complete assignments from home. Other reasonable accommodations in response to restraining orders, injunctions or orders of no contact will be considered upon request. If it is determined that the terms of an order of protection have been violated, local law enforcement shall be informed at the victim's request.

Any person who obtains an order of protection from the state of Wisconsin or any other state or tribal authority should provide a copy to Public Safety Services and the Title IX Coordinator.

- Students and community members (guests) should contact Dr. Geraldo VilaCruz, Associate Vice President/Dean of Students, at (608) 246-6442, gvilacruz@madisoncollege.edu
- Employees, vendors, and third parties should contact Lisa Muchka, Compliance Director, at (608) 246-5221, muchka@madisoncollege.edu

A complainant may then meet with Public Safety Services to develop a Safety Action Plan, which is a plan for Public Safety Services and the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to:

- Escorts
- Special parking arrangements
- Providing a temporary cellphone
- Changing classroom location
- Allowing a student to complete assignments from home
- Other

Madison College cannot apply for a legal order of protection, no contact order or restraining order for a victim from the applicable jurisdiction(s); the victim is required to apply directly for these services.

The various protection from abuse orders available in the state of Wisconsin, who may be eligible to petition the appropriate circuit court for one, and the location where a victim may file their petition is contained in Table 14.

Madison College may issue an institutional no contact order if deemed appropriate or at the request of the victim or accused. If Madison College receives a report that such an institutional no contact order has been violated, the college will initiate disciplinary proceedings appropriate to the status of the accused (student, employee, etc.) and will impose sanctions if the accused is found responsible for violating the no contact order.

Accommodations and Supportive Measures Available for Victims

Upon receipt of a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, Madison College will provide written notification to students and employees about accommodations available to them, including academic, living, transportation, protective orders and working situations. The written notification will include information regarding the accommodation options, available assistance in requesting accommodations, and how to request accommodations and supportive measures (i.e., the notification will include the name and contact information for the individual or office that should be contacted to request the accommodations).

At the victim's request, and to the extent of the victim's cooperation and consent, college offices will work cooperatively to assist the victim in obtaining accommodations. If reasonably available, a victim may be offered changes to academic, working, protective measures or transportation situations regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to Public Safety Services or local law enforcement. Examples of options for a potential change to the academic situation may be to transfer to a different section of a class, withdraw and take a class at another time if there is no option for moving to a different section, etc. Possible changes to work situations may include changing working hours. Possible changes in transportation may include having the student or employee park in a different location, assisting the student or employee with a safety escort, etc.

Requests for changes to academic, transportation, working situations or protective measures are made by contacting the appropriate Title IX Coordinator:

- Students and community members (guests) should contact Dr. Geraldo VilaCruz, Associate Vice President/Dean of Students, at (608) 246-6442, gvilacruz@madisoncollege.edu
- Employees, vendors, and third parties should contact Lisa Muchka, Compliance Director, at (608) 246-5221, muchka@madisoncollege.edu

The Title IX Coordinator or designee will determine whether interim interventions or supportive measures should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those supportive measures as soon as possible. Examples of supportive measures include, but are not limited to:

- A college order of no contact
- Adjustment of course schedules
- A leave of absence
- Reassignment to a different supervisor or position

These remedies may be applied to one, both, or multiple parties involved. Violations of the Title IX Coordinator's directives and/or supportive measures will constitute related violations that may lead to additional disciplinary action. Supportive measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by Madison College.

On- and Off-Campus Services for Victims

Upon receipt of a report of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, Madison College will provide written notification to students and employees about existing assistance with and/or information about obtaining resources and services including counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement. Table 15, On-Campus Victim Support Resources, outlines some on campus resources available to support students and employees. Table 16, Off-Campus Victim Support Resources, outlines some off campus resources available to support students and employees.

Adjudication of Violations

The college’s disciplinary process includes a prompt, fair, and impartial resolution process from the initial investigation to the final result. In all instances, the process will be conducted in a manner that is consistent with the institution’s policy and that is transparent to the complainant and respondent. Usually, the resolution of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking complaints are completed within 90 working days of the report. However, each proceeding allows for extensions of timeframes for good cause with written notice to the complainant and respondent.

Furthermore, each grievance process provides that:

- The complainant and respondent will have timely notice for meetings at which the accuser or accused, or both, may be present;
- The complainant, the respondent and appropriate officials will have timely and equal access to any information that will be used during formal and informal disciplinary meeting and hearings;
- The institutional disciplinary procedures will not be conducted by officials who have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the complainant or the respondent;
- The complainant and respondent will have the same opportunities to have support persons present during any institutional disciplinary proceeding.

- The complainant and respondent each have the opportunity to be advised by an advisor of their choice at any stage of the process and to be accompanied by that advisor to any related meeting or proceeding. The college will not limit the choice of advisor or presence for either the complainant or the respondent in any meeting or institutional disciplinary proceeding. However, the role of the advisor is limited to serving in a consultative role. An advisor may only consult with their advisee, but not speak for the advisee at any meeting or hearing.
- The complainant and respondent will be notified simultaneously, in writing, of the initial, interim and final decision of any disciplinary proceeding; and
- Where an appeal is permitted under the applicable policy, the complainant and respondent will be notified simultaneously in writing, of the procedures for the respondent and the complainant to appeal the result of the institutional disciplinary proceeding. When an appeal is filed, the complainant and respondent will be notified simultaneously in writing of any change to the result prior to the time that it becomes final as well as of the final result once the appeal is resolved.

College employees involved in the investigation or adjudication of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking complaints receive annual training related to issues of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking as well as on how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of the victim and promotes accountability. Training topics may include investigation techniques, Title IX, sexual assault and gender violence response and investigation, trauma informed response, bias training, mediation training, crisis intervention and de-escalation, the Clery Act and campus security authority, as well as information on the college's policy and grievance processes. Training includes sessions with department and guest lecturers, select seminars and conferences, and applicable online training/webinars.

Types of Disciplinary Proceedings Utilized in Cases of Alleged Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault and Stalking

Alleged incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking may be considered a violation of the college's Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy. The items below outline some of the general considerations that are made when an alleged incident is reported to the college. (More specific detail is noted elsewhere in this document.) The statements apply to students, employees, and other members of the college community affected by incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking, unless otherwise indicated.

Resolution Process for Alleged Violations of Policy on Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment, and Nondiscrimination

1. How to File a Disciplinary Complaint Under this Policy.

- It is preferred to submit reports online, using the Harassment/Discrimination Report form.
- Students and community members (guests) can file a report at any time (including during non-business hours) by contacting the Title IX Coordinator or Public Safety Services.

2. How the College Determines Whether This Policy will be Used. After receiving a report of an allegation of sexual harassment/alleged policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator will conduct an initial review and preliminary assessment. The resolution process is applicable when the alleged misconduct:

- Constitutes harassment, discrimination or retaliation as defined in the college policy
- Occurs within college jurisdiction
- Involves parties who are college community members

When it is determined that an allegation does NOT qualify as a policy violation under the resolution process, resolution may be sought under other applicable college conduct process.

3. Steps in the Disciplinary Process. The following outlines the actions that will be taken upon notice, a complaint or knowledge of alleged misconduct. The process may take up to 90 days to complete from the time information is received to the notice of outcome. Table 17, Overview of Resolution Actions, provides a general overview.

TABLE 17. OVERVIEW OF RESOLUTION ACTIONS

- Notice, a complaint, or knowledge of alleged violation received.
- Initial review and preliminary assessment.
- Written notice of allegations.
- Investigation of alleged harassment, discrimination, or retaliation.
- Informal resolution or formal resolution.
- Notice of outcome.
- Appeal.

4. Decision-Making Process. The decision maker will determine whether the respondent is responsible or not responsible for the alleged policy violation(s), based on the preponderance of evidence standard. The decision maker receives the final investigation report which includes all evidence directly related to the allegations raised in the formal complaint.

5. Standard of Evidence. A determination of whether the respondent is responsible or not responsible for the alleged policy violation(s), is based on the preponderance of evidence standard, that is, it is more likely than not that a policy violation occurred.

6. Possible Sanctions. The following list identifies the possible sanctions that may be imposed when a student respondent is found responsible of a violation of the Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy:

- College suspension
- College expulsion
- Revocation of admission
- Conduct probation
- Written warning
- Loss of privileges
- Restitution
- No contact directive
- Eligibility restriction
- Student groups and organizations sanctions

The following list identifies the possible sanctions that may be imposed when an employee respondent is found responsible of a violation of the Equal Opportunity, Anti-harassment and Nondiscrimination Policy. This list applies to any classification of college employees (e.g., faculty, staff, manager, etc.):

- Training
- Verbal warning
- Written letter of reprimand
- Paid suspension
- Unpaid suspension
- No contact directive
- Restrictions on professional development funds
- Termination of employment

7. Range of Protective Measures Available to a Victim Alleging Misconduct. Supportive measures are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge. These may include, but are not limited to:

- Counseling
- Extensions of deadlines or other course-related adjustments
- Modifications of work or class schedules
- Employee Assistance Program
- Campus safety services
- Mutual restrictions on contact between the parties
- Work accommodations
- Leaves of absence
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus
- No contact orders (Violations of no contact orders will be referred to appropriate student or employee conduct processes for enforcement.)
- Safety planning
- Or similar measures

Upon conclusion of a resolution action, similar measures may also be applied to remedy the effects of the alleged conduct.

College-Initiated Protective Measures

In addition to those protective measures previously described, the Title IX Coordinator or other designated official will determine whether interim interventions and protective measures should be implemented, and, if so, take steps to implement those protective measures as soon as possible. Examples of interim protective measures include but are not limited to: college order of no contact, adjustment of course schedules, a leave of absence, or reassignment to a different supervisor or position. These remedies may be applied to one, both, or multiple parties involved. Violations of the Title IX Coordinator's directives and/or protective measures may constitute related violations that could lead to additional disciplinary action. Protective measures imposed may be temporary pending the results of an investigation or may become permanent as determined by Madison College.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY AND ACCESS TO RELATED INFORMATION

In accordance with section 121 of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006, the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (2000), which amends the Jacob Wetterling Crimes against Children and Sexually Violent Offenders Registration Act, the Jeanne Clery Act and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, Public Safety Services maintains a list of registered sex offenders who are enrolled in Madison College classes and/or programs and provides a link to the Wisconsin Department of Corrections Sex Offender Registry on its webpage. The list is accessible from the Public Safety Services main office location at the Truax Campus. In Wisconsin, convicted sex offenders must register with the Department of Corrections; the registry can be found online at offender.doc.state.wi.us/public.

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement information provided by the state concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders to provide notice of each institution of higher education in the state which the person is employed, carries a vocation or is a student. The Wisconsin Department of Corrections supplies information to Madison College Public Safety Services regarding registered sex offenders who are enrolled or employed at Madison College.

Registry information provided under this section shall be used for the purposes of the administration of criminal justice, screening of current or prospective employees, volunteers, or otherwise for the protection of the public in general and children in particular. Unlawful use of the information for purposes of intimidating or harassing another is prohibited and willful violation shall be punishable to the fullest extent of the law.

(HEOA) NOTIFICATION TO VICTIMS OF CRIMES OF VIOLENCE

The college will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by such institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as the result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of this paragraph.

WORKING WITH MINORS

Madison College recognizes the reporting obligations of those individuals qualified as “mandated reporters” per Wisconsin statute (48.981(2)). As such, those individuals who have reasonable cause to suspect abuse or neglect and/or the threat of abuse or neglect of a child having been seen in the course of their professional duties will file a report as required by law and in accordance with Madison College policy. Madison College performs background checks as required for any employee, volunteer, or contractor performing a service for the college and when working with a minor. Training is also made available to mandated reporters.

MISSING STUDENTS

Madison College is a non-residential institution with no residential facilities at any of its campuses; as such, the college does not have a published policy on missing students. Individuals can reach out to Public Safety Services or the Dean of Students Office for assistance.

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

Madison College strives to be compliant with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Police and Crime Statistics Act (The Clery Act) as amended in 2013, which requires all post-secondary institutions to publish and distribute certain information regarding campus crimes, including reports of campus sexual assault, sexual assault policies and security programming to all current students, employees and to any applicant who so requests.

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act requires the distribution of an annual security report to all current students and employees, and notice of its availability to all prospective students or employees. All crime statistics are gathered, compiled, and reported to the Department of Education. The statistical information gathered by the Department of Education (ED) is available to the public through the ED website. The Annual Security Report including statistical information can be accessed by the Madison College community or public on the Public Safety Services website. Individuals can also access the report by visiting the Public Safety Services office at the Truax Campus or Goodman South Madison Campus; or the welcome desks at any of the Regional Campuses.

CAMPUS CRIME STATISTICS

Crime statistics compiled for the Annual Security Report in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Act are obtained through the following sources:

- Public Safety Services incident reporting system.
- Reports provided from Human Resources and the Dean of Students Office which includes Harassment/Discrimination, Title IX/Sexual Harassment, and Behavioral Intervention Team data.
- Statistics from local police departments including the Fort Atkinson, Madison, Portage, Reedsburg and Watertown police departments.
- Data provided by Campus Security Authorities.

Incident Reporting System

Madison College Public Safety Services maintains a daily crime log which lists every crime reported to Public Safety Services within the past 60 days. (See “Daily Crime Log” which appears earlier in this document for more information.) Data from the daily crime log is entered into an incident reporting system. At the time that the Annual Security Report is published, the incident reporting system is reviewed to capture the necessary crime statistic data for the report.

Harassment/Discrimination (including Sexual Harassment) Data

Public Safety Services works with team members in the Human Resources Department and the Dean of Students Office to ensure that reported incidents qualifying as Clery crimes are appropriately referred to Public Safety Services for inclusion in the Daily Crime Log and are reported as Crime statistics in the Annual Security Report.

Local Crime Statistics

Public Safety Services requests crime data from local law enforcement authorities to include as Crime Statistics in the Annual Security Report.

Campus Security Authorities

Those employees having a significant responsibility for student discipline and campus judicial proceedings, as well as employees with responsibility for other student and campus activities, will be identified as Campus Security Authorities. This includes Public Safety Services as well as other identified employees who have the authority and the duty to act or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution. Campus Security Authorities are defined by federal law, and local law enforcement jurisdictions, located in and around Madison and within the various regional campuses located in neighboring counties.

A written request for statistical information is made on an annual basis to all Campus Security Authorities and to College Deans, Directors, and Department Leads. Crime statistics are collected for buildings that are owned or controlled by Madison College and used for educational and institutional purposes. Madison College is a non-residential institution with no residential facilities at any of its campuses.

CRIME DEFINITIONS

The statistics presented in the 2021-2023 Crime Statistics section of this report are based on the following Clery Act definitions of crimes.

Aggravated Assault

An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

Arson

Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

Burglary

The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. There are two categories of burglaries: forcible entry and no force.

Forcible Entry

- All offenses where force of any kind is used to unlawfully enter a structure for the purpose of committing a theft or felony

No Force

- All offenses where entry is gained by use of an unlocked door or window.

Criminal Homicide-Murder and Non-negligent Manslaughter

The willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another.

Criminal Homicide- Manslaughter by Negligence

The killing of another person through gross negligence.

Dating Violence

Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be based on the reporting party's statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

For the purposes of this definition:

- Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
- Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and §668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

Domestic Violence

A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:

- By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
- By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
- By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
- By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and §668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

Motor Vehicle Theft

The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.

Robbery

The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.

Sexual Assault

An offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) program. Per the National Incident-Based Reporting System User Manual from the FBI UCR Program, a sex offense is "any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent."

The definitions of these four offenses are as follows:

Rape

- The penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

Fondling

- The touching of the private parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

Incest

- Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

Statutory Rape

- Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Stalking

Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

- Fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition:

- Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person's property.
- Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

For the purposes of complying with the requirements of this section and section §668.41, any incident meeting this definition is considered a crime for the purposes of Clery Act reporting.

ILLEGAL WEAPONS POSSESSION AND SUBSTANCE LAW VIOLATIONS

In addition to disclosing statistics for the aforementioned offenses, the Clery Act requires institutions to disclose both the number of arrests and the number of people referred for disciplinary action for the following violations:

Drug Law Violations

The violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use; the unlawful cultivation, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, use, possession, transportation or importation of any controlled drug or narcotic substance; arrests for violations of state and local laws, specifically those relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing and making of narcotic drugs.

The relevant substances include: opium or cocaine and their derivatives (morphine, heroin, codeine), marijuana, synthetic narcotics (manufactured narcotics which can cause true addiction – Demerol, methadone), and dangerous narcotic drugs (barbiturates, Benzedrine).

Liquor Law Violations

The violation of state or local laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession or use of alcoholic beverages, not including driving under the influence and drunkenness.

Weapon Possession Violations

The violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices or other deadly weapons. This classification encompasses weapons offenses that are regulatory in nature.

Offenses covered within this classification include the manufacture, sale or possession of deadly weapons; carrying deadly weapons, concealed or openly; using and manufacturing of silencers; furnishing deadly weapons to minors; aliens possessing deadly weapons and attempts to commit any of the above.

FIRE SAFETY REPORT

Madison College is a non-residential institution with no residential facilities at any of its campuses; as such, the college does not publish an annual fire safety report.

GEOGRAPHY DEFINITIONS FROM THE CLERY ACT

The statistics presented in the 2020-2022 Crime Statistics section of this report are based on the following Clery Act geography definitions.

On-Campus

Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution of higher education within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including student halls; and property within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).

On-Campus Student Housing

Any student housing facility that is owned or controlled by the institution or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution and is within the reasonably contiguous geographic area that makes up campus. Madison College does not own or operate on-campus student housing.

Non-Campus Building or Property

Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization recognized by the institution; and any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Public Property

All public property that is within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution, such as a sidewalk, a street, other thoroughfare, or parking facility, and is adjacent to a facility owned or controlled by the institution.
