Moving To Madison?

Finding housing in a new area can be a challenge. Distance and lack of familiarity often lead to confusion about areas in which to live, proximity to resources and safety.

The Madison College Center for Student Life has put together this guide to help you find a place to call home.
A Little Bit About Madison

Madison is a bustling urban area of more than 200,000 residents and the community is home to tens-of-thousands of college students.

Madison is an intellectually and culturally diverse city.

From local theaters, such as the Overture Center, or Concerts on the Square in the summer, there is always something to be enjoyed in Madison.

Located close to the Madison College Truax Campus are shopping areas, such as the East Towne Mall, and numerous restaurants. Grocery stores, gas stations, department stores and even a bakery are just minutes away.

Near the Downtown Education Center there is a more diverse selection of stores, eateries and coffeehouses, located one block away on historic State Street.

From sublets to leasing opportunities; efficiencies to five bedrooms, the housing you need can be found in close proximity to all of Madison College’s campuses.

Madison College Bulletin Boards

Within Truax and the Downtown Education Center (DTEC) are classified bulletin boards. These include sublets, leases and roommate information.

The Truax board is located in the Mitby Theatre hallway, across from the Mail Room.

The DTEC board is located on the first floor of the building next to the Information and Enrollment Counter.
