LIBERAL ARTS TRANSFER
CLASS SELECTION WORKSHEET

You will likely enroll in a Math and English class your first semester in college. Beyond that, choose additional classes based on your intended future major and/or your interests. Try to choose classes from a variety of categories and stay within your preferred credit load (Full-time = 12 credits, Part-time = 6 credits).

Math:
Select a Math class based on your COMPASS score. If you are not sure of your score, you can look it up in your myMadisonCollege “Student Center”.

Non-credit
_____ Math Concepts (skill building)
_____ Basic Algebra (skill building)

3-5 credits
_____ Elementary Algebra with Applications
_____ Intermediate Algebra
_____ College Algebra
_____ Trigonometry
_____ Math Analysis
_____ Calculus

English:
Select an English class based on your COMPASS score. If you are not sure of your scores, you can look them up in your myMadisonCollege “Student Center”.

Non-credit
_____ Academic Writing 1/2 (skill building)
_____ Academic Writing 3/4 (skill building)
_____ Academic Writing 5/6 (skill building)

3 credits
_____ Introduction to College Writing
_____ English 1

*Choose at least 2-3 more classes from the categories on the back on this worksheet if you intend to be a full-time student.
Humanities:
3-4 credits
Write down a possible Humanities class. Typically, art appreciation/history, creative writing, drama, film, literature, mass communication, music history or theory, philosophy, and world language are considered humanities.

Social Science:
3 credits
Write down a possible Social Science class. Typically, anthropology, economics, government, history, psychology, and sociology are considered social sciences.

Natural Science:
3-5 credits
Write down a possible Natural Science class.

Ethnic Studies:
3 credits
Write down a possible Ethnic Studies class.

Other Options:
Depending on your reading COMPASS score and/or your interest in First-Year Experience opportunities, you might also consider these classes:

1-3 credits

_____ College Success
_____ Learning to Learn Camp
_____ College Reading Strategies
_____ New Student Seminar (paired with another class)