Biographical Sketch

Terrance S. Webb, J.D.
Provost
Madison Area Technical College
Madison, Wisconsin

Terry Webb earned a Bachelor's Degree (B.A.) in History from St. Norbert College in 1976. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 1980 with a Doctor of Law (J.D.) degree. After several years of law practice, Webb returned to college and earned a Masters in Business Administration (M.B.A.) at the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh in 1993. He taught business and law as a faculty member at University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh and William Penn College in Iowa. In 1998, Webb accepted the position of Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs and Dean of the Faculty at William Penn College. Following that service Webb accepted the Dean of Arts & Sciences position at Madison Area Technical College (Madison College). He served in that capacity for four years before assuming the position of Executive Dean for Learning Programs. In 2006, Webb became the Associate Vice President for Learner Success at Madison College. He was appointed as the Vice President for Learner Success at Madison College the fall of 2008. In September 2011 Webb became Provost of the College – a position he holds now.