Access to Community Services was founded with the belief that all people deserve equal access to opportunities that allow them to live, work, and enjoy life in their community. Member charities provide people with disabilities and other challenges access to job training, support in living situations, and assistance with recreational time through arts programs and sports opportunities. You may contribute to Access to Community Services itself or directly to the member organizations listed in this section. Fifty percent of undesignated money is distributed to member charities based on a percentage equal to each charity’s direct designations; remaining money is distributed equally among the charities.

United Way engages our community, mobilizes volunteers, and strengthens local nonprofits to achieve measurable results and change lives. Our volunteers listened to the community and, together, identified seven goals in three priority areas: education, safety, and health. These goals are the foundation of our work – our community’s Agenda for Change. Donations, skilled volunteers, and other resources are strategically invested in research-based initiative to reduce and eliminate the underlying causes of problems in our community, to change people’s lives, and to make our community better educated, safer, and healthier. • We’re local: An investment in United Way stays in Dane County and supports work in our community. • We’re efficient: United Way leverages donations of time, talent, and dollars many times over through time-tested partnerships, transparent operation, and responsible management. • We’re focused: We mobilize community leaders, agencies, businesses, government, volunteers, and many others to achieve lasting results on our community’s most critical issues.
