INTRO
Michelle picks up the dice and roles first. She moves ahead three spaces, her car piece landing on a question mark.

MICHELLE
"What does that mean?"

CIARA
"It’s for a question card. How much do you expect to make in your post-graduate career?"

MICHELLE
"Hmm, I never really thought about an amount before...”

NIMERA
"Oh, that’s an easy one! $250,000."

DILLON
“Entry level? I think you’re dreaming.”

NIMERA
“Isn’t that realistic for fashion?”

CIARA
“At least you know what you want to do! I’m still picking which program I want to enroll in, so I’m am not sure how much it will cost or what I’ll make.”

MICHELLE
"I want to become a physical therapist, but have lots of school between then and now."

CIARA
"Hmm, I just got a quiz question. What’s the difference between scholarships, grants, PLUS Loans and work-study funds?"

MICHELLE
"Work that work study!"

NARRATOR
"Work it indeed! You all have a long road ahead. Planning, hard work and setting milestones will help make the drive more enjoyable."
FATE BASICS

DILLON
"And snacks!"

MICHELLE
"Have you concerned the Bakery program, Dillon?"

DILLON
"What kind of dough would I make?"

NARRATOR
"Your puns certainly take the cake, son! Go through the FATE Basics to find out how much you might make post-graduation - in addition to your program costs, financing options and what types of funding you are eligible for."
