This presentation and lecture will allow the audience to transcend their limited beliefs and obtain a wider perspective about how to deal with one of the two greatest social challenges of our time.

There will be facts about the origin and history of illegal immigration, and its current economic and social impact in the United States.