Madison College to Celebrate Centennial Commencement
Students Taking Ceremonial Walk Down State Street

(MADISON) April 18, 2012 – It all started 100 years ago in a humble one-room classroom above a downtown Madison firehouse.

When Madison College graduates take part in Commencement on Sunday, May 20, they will honor the College’s past century of success by taking a ceremonial walk from the downtown campus to State Street and then to the Overture Center.

Graduation ceremonies at the Overture Center will take place at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Madison Area Technical College, celebrating its centennial in 2012, provides “real world smart” education to more than 40,000 students annually through a comprehensive curriculum of technical, liberal arts and science education, adult basic education and continuing education. The College also offers customized training for employers. For more information visit www.madisoncollege.org
