Madison College to Hold Dessert Show
Proceeds to Benefit Charity

(MADISON) May 2, 2012 – Got a sweet tooth? To help celebrate Madison College’s centennial and raise money for charity, Baking and Pastry Arts students are holding a Dessert Show on Thursday, May 3, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Truax Student Lounge.

Folks can sample a dozen delicious miniature desserts for $20.

Proceeds benefit Food Enterprise and Economic Development (FEED), the new incubator kitchen on Madison’s north side.

Madison Area Technical College, celebrating its centennial in 2012, provides “real world smart” education to more than 40,000 students annually through a comprehensive curriculum of technical, liberal arts and science education, adult basic education and continuing education. The College also offers customized training for employers. For more information visit www.madisoncollege.org
